

Evangeline OES Plans Installation Rite

To Take Office
Mrs. Alford Smith will be installed as worthy matron and Roy M. Crawford as worthy patron of Evangeline Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in public ceremony at Masonic Temple.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:
About the greatest thing I have learned over the years is to vary hamburger.
Most people never think to stuff bell peppers. For those who do, I have a suggestion. Cut your peppers crosswise instead of lengthwise.
This allows the pepper itself to be put in a muffin tin to be baked. Pile the meat loaf high so that it will look like Mount Fuji. These little individual meat loaves are so pretty when (just a few minutes before serving) chili sauce is poured over the "top-of-the-mountain" and allowed to drip down the sides. Another thing about piling the meat high is that those who do not particularly like the taste of peppers can have the delicious meat itself and leave the chili.
And, Heloise, the best part of fixing meat in this manner is that the seeds from the peppers can be utilized. Put them in the meat mixture. Sure season the old hamburger!
Poor Hamburger
A word of caution: buy the best paint brush you can afford. This saves streaks and makes the paint smooth. Clean the brush afterward. For 10 cents you can get paint brush cleaners at your hardware and dime stores. Paint brushes can be used for years if they are properly taken care of.
If you apply a second coat (next day, after you have rested) make the paint thinner and it will go on twice as fast as the first coat did. This will remove all marks and cover any mistakes you made the first time. It did mine.
Why not have a beautiful kitchen? Paint it today.

PETUNIA!
Kettles and canisters clutter the place....
My kingdom for some working space!
You'll have more working space, Petunia, if you'd nail your bread-box to the bottom of your cupboard.

Tea Tarts

To make elegant little Tea Tarts for tea-parties: Fill small tart shells with a layer of French Creme de marrons glaces (cream of glazed chestnuts), then a thin layer of melted sweet chocolate and top with whipped cream.

Speaking of Beauty . . .

That Fabulous Flick
Going to a special party? We'll make a color-smarty of you! With practiced push-button prowess, we'll spray in a special highlight of color. Maybe a definite "streak" of silver . . . maybe a bewitching line of lavender, pink or pale blue. Or perhaps we will pretty up your hair with all-over color accent — blonde, redhead, or recklessly daring! We've a whole selection of femme fatale secrets. Just ask.

FROM UNDER THE DRYER:
A pessimist may be the optimist who thought it over.

The Aerosol "Girdle"
We like to say hair-spray is an invisible "girdle" for hair! It keeps curls up, smooths their smart lines, won't let your new "do" sag. But all hair-sprays aren't alike, even if their labels sound that way. Different types of hair react best to different types of spray. Take the "say" of your professional beautician, you'll like your hair-do longer. Stop by for an answer, any time!
