NEW YORK — Bill Stafford's string of 25 scoreless innings has been broken, but the New York Yankee righthander couldn't care less.

"I didn't even know I had it," Stafford said in the clubhouse

Tuesday night, still elated after a 2-1 victory over Frank Lary and the Detroit Tigers that put the Yankees back into first place. The Tigers finally broke through with a run after two were out in the ninth.

The thing that Stafford was most pleased about was the fact that he didn't walk anybody. The cold figures show that Stafford has passed only 27 men in 79 innings.

"If I walk over 65 men in a season I think I have had a bad year," he said. "Control is the big thing for a pitcher. Supposing I walked two or three men tonight and they happened to come up with their hits in the same inning.

"The way to win those 2-1 games is by not walking batters. Look at (Warren) Spahn. How many does he win 3-2 and 2-1 because he doesn't walk many. And Whitey (Ford) too."

Stafford, only 23, appears to be headed for his top year in the majors with a 6-3 record. His best so far was 1961 when he was 14 and 9. In the last four starts he has allowed a total of only 20 hits and seven runs. Only two of the runs were earned.

In Tuesday night's fine effort, Stafford had a second straight shutout in hand until the Tigers broke through in the ninth on singles by Rocky Colavito, Vic Wertz and Chico Fernandez. With the tying and winning run on base, he ended the game by throwing a curve ball past Dick Brown on a 3-2 count.

The Angels broke up a 3-3 tie in the sixth inning and drove starter Joe Bonikowski to the showers. He had given up a double to Albie Pearson and Thomas' two-run first homer. They scored three runs in the inning.

Los Angeles got the runs on two hits and a throwing error, plus four walks.

KANSAS CITY — Dave Wickersham, Kansas City's ex-relief hurler, pitched the Athletics to a 2-1 victory over Chicago Tuesday night.

Manny Jimenez, Gino Cimoli and Joe Azcue put together a three-hit eighth inning that overcame a one-run Chicago lead and gave Wickersham the decision over Chicago's Juan Pizarro.

It was Wickersham's seventh victory as compared to two losses and left Pizarro with a 3-5 record. The big A's righthander gave up only three hits.

Jimenez, who had been in a batting slump and lost the American League leadership to Dick Rolling of Minnesota, led off the eighth with a single to left centerfield. After Norm Siebern fouled out and Ed Charles flied deep to center, Cimoli tripled and Azcue hit a single that scored the winning run.

Jimenez had three hits in four tries and raised his average to .350.

Slamming Five Home Runs

Braves Wallop Dodgers, 15-2

MILWAUKEE — The Milwaukee Braves unloaded a 17-hit barrage, including five homers, in belting the Los Angeles Dodgers 15-2 Tuesday night behind the pitching of Lew Burdette.

The defeat cut the Dodgers National League lead to one game over the San Francisco Giants who swept a doubleheader from the Cincinnati Reds 2-1 and 7-5.

The Braves bombed Los Angeles starter Johnny Podres for five runs in the first inning and Burdette coasted to his first victory over the Dodgers in Milwaukee County Stadium since July 13, 1956.

The veteran right hander was supported by the home runs of Gus Bell, Eddie Mathews, Hank Aaron, Frank Bolling and Tommie Aaron.

Burdette allowed only six hits in winning his fourth straight after four losses. He struck out eight and walked only one.

Podres, who suffered his fifth loss in eight decisions, was tagged for six hits and seven runs before being relieved by Phil Ortega after Mathews' 11th homer and no. 381 of his career in the second.

Pittsburgh, 4-3

CHICAGO — Fireman Elroy Face saved the Pittsburgh Pirates' fourth straight victory Tuesday by getting Ernie Banks to drill into a game-ending double play as the Cubs caged the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

Ken Hubbs, the Cubs' rookie second baseman, had just singled with one out in the ninth for the Chicagoans' 11th hit when Face collared Banks via a grounder to shortstop Dick Groat.

Face, who came aboard in the eighth, thus saved veteran Harvey Haddix' fifth win among seven decisions as the Cubs became the first major league team to lose 40 games this season. They have won 20.

Pittsburgh moved off to a fast start with two run scoring speers in the first and second innings. Glen Hobbie was the victim, suffering his eighth setback among nine decisions. Bob Skinner, Dick Stuart and Roberto Clemente stroked three straight two-out singles in the first inning.

Brown opened the seventh with a double and then scored to put the Phillies in front, 2-1.

Reichow Inks Pact

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS — Jerry Reichow, former Iowa quarterback and leading Minnesota Vikings pass receiver last season, Tuesday signed contracts with the National Football League club for 1962 and 1963.

Mejias with the winning run as the Houston Colts came from behind to defeat the New York Mets, 3-2 Tuesday night with two runs in the ninth inning.

Craig Anderson was the victim of the Colts' uprising. With one out, pinch hitter Billy Goodman beat out an infield hit and that spelled the start of Anderson's downfall.

Jim Rusby went in to run for Goodman and Browne, batting for Ken Johnson tripled him home to tie the score at 2-2. Majias ran for Browne and held second when Anderson walked. Al Spangler intentionally. Then Amalfitano hit his game-winning single.
