Program 'Best'

SALEM (UPI)— The Oregon driver licensing program is the best in the West, according to a national evaluation for 1961 by the National Safety Council.

The State Motor Vehicles Department said Oregon's program scored 97 per cent, as did programs of Illinois and Minnesota. Thus, Oregon scored with those two states for the second highest total nationally.

North Carolina and Maryland scored 100 per cent. California scored 94 per cent, Washington 87, Idaho 61, and Nevada 44.

New Plant

Construction is under way on this new $85,000 building at the southwest corner of W. Seventh Place and McKinley Street in Eugene, being built to house Koke Printing & Lithographing Co. The building was designed by architects Balzhiser, Seder & Rhodes. It is being built by John M. Steinmuller. When completed next fall it will have 8,000 square feet of floor space in a shop area, plus 3,000 for offices. Present offices at 73 E. Broadway are located on the site of a proposed new First National Bank building. Printing firm owner and manager Philip J. Koke expects to be moved into the new quarters by Sept. 15.
