Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Miller of Eugene, pictured now and at the time of their marriage in Clarinda, Iowa, marked their golden wedding date at a ceremony and reception at Messiah Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Miller of Eugene were honored at a church service and reception at Messiah Lutheran Church marking their 50th wedding anniversary. The couple was married June 2, 1912, in Clarinda, Iowa.

Hosts for the anniversary were the couple's three children and their families: Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miller and Jenny of Altadena, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Miller, Alvin, Ron and Shirley of Junction City; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steege, Roy, Ken, Joyce and Janice of Springfield.

The church was decorated with bouquets of white and gold chrysanthemums, stock, variegated privet, and greenery sprayed with gold.

The brief church ceremony, with Pastor Lawrence F. Rohlfing officiating, began with the lighting of candles by the couple's two oldest granddaughters, Shirley Miller and Joyce Steege. The Millers were ushered to the front of the church by their oldest grandson, Alvin Miller. Other ushers were grandsons Ron Miller, Roy and Ken Steege.

The three children and daughter-in-law of the couple sang "O Perfect Love," accompanied by sister-in-law Mrs. Ben Goecker of Clarinda, Iowa. She also played organ music throughout the service.

The couple received their 165 guests in the parish hall of the church. Mrs. Miller wore a dress of robin's egg blue crepe with matching necklace and corsage of gold-toned orchids.

The reception table was decorated with a tiered cake, made by Mrs. Charley Wheeler of Springfield, and candelabra with gold candles. Mrs. Dan Goecker of Oakland, Calif., served the cake. Mrs. Louise Janssen, a sister, poured coffee and Mrs. Herman Kunkel, a long-time friend, served punch.

Mrs. Philip Buck sang several selections during the reception. Mrs. Lawrence Rohlfing was in charge of the guest book.

Steak Broiling Tips

Steaks for broiling or grilling should be at least 1 inch thick. To prevent the meat from curling, make several slashes into the fat edge, but do not cut into the lean. Turn steaks only once, and use tongs or a fork inserted into the fat edge. Steaks should be seasoned after broiling.
