

Beatty Said Ready to Aim For Record

By DICK LEUTZINGER
Of the Register-Guard

WALNUT, Calif.—A Los Angeles sports editor reported Wednesday that Jim Beatty's training schedule calls for him to break the American record when he runs the mile here Saturday in the National AAU track and field championships.

The article said he criticized Oregon's Dyrrol Burleson for withdrawing from the mile. Meanwhile, outlining Beatty's pre-arranged plans for the season, coach Mihaly Igloi had set June 9 as his target date for a world's two-mile record. Beatty hit it right on the nose, said George Davis of the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner.

"Igloi also mapped out his program for Beatty to break the American mile record in the coming weekend — and the scratching of Burleson doesn't change that."

Beatty rather hesitant to comment on Burleson's withdrawal from the mile and subsequent entry in the three-mile, said only of Burleson: "He's kind of screwball."

Possibly Beatty was thinking back to the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays when hesitating to comment further on Burleson.

It will be remembered that Burly delayed announcing his entry in the mile against New Zealand's Peter Snell — some saying so he would gain an edge over Snell by taking him by surprise. It was to no avail, however, as Snell ran away from Burleson with a 24.5 final 220, leaving Burly a distant second.

Has Burly's announced withdrawal changed Beatty's plans to attempt to set the American record? "As of today, we have not even discussed how we'll run the race—the only thing is to make the team," Beatty said.

"The team" is the United States team that will face Russia and Poland in dual meets later this summer. The first two American finishers in each event in Saturday's AAU qualify for spots on the team.

Burleson said Saturday after winning his third straight NCAA mile championship that he wouldn't try to qualify for the U.S. team. "The Russians don't have much," he said, "and it would only be a trip to Palo Alto—no great attraction."

Enters Three-Mile

However, after talking with coach Bill Bowerman early this week, Burly announced he would enter the three-mile run on Saturday.

Plane reservations indicate that Burleson isn't scheduled to leave Eugene until Friday. This being the case, he definitely would not enter the mile since trial heats are scheduled for Friday. There are no preliminaries in the three-mile.

Davis, Tuesday in his column, accused Burleson of "ducking the issue," by not running the mile against Beatty. Burly, the defending AAU mile champion, scored his only mile victory over Beatty in last year's AAU when he won a controversial tactical race in a disappointing 4:04.9.

Burly passed up several opportunities to race Beatty indoors this past winter, while Beatty skipped the Sugar Bowl mile last New Year's weekend — a race won by Burleson and to which Beatty had been invited.

Beatty scored his first victory over Burleson at the California Relays in Modesto in 1960, defeating him 3:58.0 to 3:59.2. The following winter he defeated him twice indoors. Since Burly's 1961 AAU win, they haven't met.

Battle Royal Heads Card

COMPLETE PROGRAM
Main Event—Dory Dixon, Maurice Vachone, Pepi Gomez, Billy White Wolf, Kurt VonPoppenheim, Al Pagono, Luther Lindsay. (Over-top battle royal).

Semifinal—Vachone vs. White Wolf.
Special—Dixon vs. VonPoppenheim.
Opener—Lindsay vs. Gomez. Referee—Elton Owen.

A seven-man over-the-top wrestling "battle royal" will feature the weekly program at the fairgrounds Cow Palace Saturday night.

Seven top-flight wrestlers will compete in the show, but the free-for-all, with a $250 purse at stake, will be the big attraction.

Maurice Vachone, the unpredictable Frenchman, and Billy White Wolf, will be in the "royal" and will also clash in one of the preliminary bouts in which the Frenchman will be seeking revenge for a loss to the Indian in a recent "death match."

Dory Dixon, sensational heavy-weight champion from Texas who has run roughshod over all opponents lately, will take on Kurt VonPoppenheim, villainous German, in a special bout. Both will be in the royal.

Luther Lindsay, popular collegian from Virginia, will meet Pepi Gomez in the opener that gets under way at 8:30 p.m. standard, 9:30 p.m. daylight. They will also vie in the free-for-all.

Added to the field in the "royal" will be Al Pagono who will have the advantage of not having to compete in one of the prelims.

Don Morrow Gains Semis

LAKE OSWEGO (AP)—Bill McCrae, co-medalist in the Junior Division, took a 9 and 7 victory from Steve Vrtilska of Corvallis in the quarterfinal round of the Oregon State Junior Golf tournament Wednesday and established himself as the favorite to win the division.

He was even par when he got the victory with seven holes left in the round.

McCrae tangles with Don Morrow, Eugene, Thursday. Morrow had to go the full 18 holes Wednesday to beat John Nelson of Portland.

Also in Thursday semifinals in the Junior Division are Dick Iverson, Portland, and Mike O'Toole, Portland.

In Boys' Division action, John Krogh, co-medalist, advanced to Thursday's semifinals with a 3 and 1 victory over Casey Olinger, Salem.

Other semifinalists there were Jim Wilkey, Portland, Doug Olson, Medford, and Mark Gustafson, Corvallis.

Wilkey turned back Bob Renie, Laurelwood, 4-2.

Reaching the semifinals in Girls Division were Joan Edwards, Portland; Treasure Sullivan, Portland; Wendy Moberly, La Grande, and Diane Kiesen-dahl, Portland.

In the junior first flight, Don Schweiger, Eugene, defeated Mike Sadd, McMinnville, 4-3.
