

Favorites Eliminated Early in Collegiate Golf Championships

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—For years some college coaches and amateur golf enthusiasts have maintained that the National Collegiate (NCAA) mens' tournament is one of the most rugged tests in golf.

The 65th edition of the championship, now in its second round at Duke University, underscores this opinion.

Competition is fierce. It appears that the quickest way to get yourself knocked off is to bring a glowing reputation into battle.

Three days ago the coaches announced with pride their three-team All-America choices. All 18 were entered in the tournament. But only nine were around Thursday as the rain-interrupted second round resumed.

Three failed to qualify after 36 holes of medal play scrambling for 64 match play positions.

Shaw Wins, Cundari Loses in NCAA

DURHAM, N.C. (AP)—Tom Shaw of Oregon scored a 2 and 1 win while Jerry Cundari lost a heartbreaker in the opening round of match play in the NCAA golf championships Wednesday over the Luke University course.

Shaw was even with Robert Droz of Utah on the 15th when

They were unable to make the 156 cutoff point. One lost out in the playoff and five more were eased out in the first round.

Rain cut play short with five of the 16 second round matches in progress on the par 71 course, measuring 6,828 yards. Play will be resumed at the point of suspension, and the third round will be played

Thursday afternoon. Under the revised schedule, the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds will be played Friday over 18 holes. The semis originally were carded for 36. Barring further rain scramble, the 36-hole finals will go as scheduled Saturday.

Five matches went 19 holes. Nine went the regulation 18 and six carried to the 17th green.

Medalist Kermit Zarley of Houston, whose 140 led the 36-hole medal play, was the only one of the top five scorers to survive the opening rounds.

He won the last two holes to edge Army's S. B. Pembroke, 2 and 1, then took out to play Ed Moehling Jr., two-time Illinois State champion from Northern Illinois. Zarley led 1 up when they were halted by rain after nine holes.

Big names dropping by the wayside included two 1961 quarterfinalists, Charles Layton of Georgia and Pete Byers of Marshall, and John Lotz of San Jose State.

Layton lost on the 18th after a nightmarish 18th. The Georgian lost that hole to square the match when a caddy from another match mistakenly picked up Layton's tee shot pushed into the woods. It meant automatic loss of the hole.

Byers was beaten, 1 up, by Wake Forest's Ken Folkes who shared the Atlantic Coast Conference title with Duke's John Abernethy. It was Abernethy who put out Lotz, 2 up.

First team All Americas who survived the milling were Homero Blancas of Houston, Charles Courtney of San Diego State, Labron Harris of Oklahoma State and Jerry Jackson, Purdue.

National public links champ Richard Sikes of Arkansas, like Courtney a fifth rounder in last year's National Amateur, won. But Tom Finke of Arizona, also in the 1961 National Amateur fifth round, failed to survive the 13-man morning playoff for five first round places, when he bogeyed the only hole the sudden death playoff required.
