

New Pastor to Be Installed Sunday at Grace Lutheran

REV. H. J. GIESEKE
Coming to Eugene

Grace Lutheran Church's new pastor, the Rev. Harold J. Gieseke, will be installed Sunday in services at the church, 17th Avenue and Hilyard Street, Eugene.

The Rev. Gieseke, a native of the Northwest, was called to the Eugene church from the pastorate of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Tacoma, Wash.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Northwest District, Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod.

Many Emerald Empire residents know the Rev. Gieseke from his nine years (1948-1955) at Zion Lutheran Church in Corvallis, where he also worked with students at Oregon State University.

He is a graduate of Concordia College, Portland, and Oakland, Calif., and Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo. He graduated in 1934, and served in Washington pastorates through 1942, in addition to working with students at Washington State University and the University of Idaho.

The Rev. Gieseke, his wife and five children will live in the church parsonage at 1343 Mill St., Eugene. The couple's children are Mary, 18; Irma, 15; Claudia, 12; Tamara, 4, and Harold, 3.

Sunday's installation service is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. standard, 3:30 p.m. daylight. The new pastor will be installed by the Rev. Lawrence Rohlfing, pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church, Eugene. A reception for the new pastor and his family will follow in the parish hall.

Fellowship Director

Eugenean Appointed To New Post

Helen Wilcox Kelts, former Registrar of the Christian Writers Institute of Chicago, has been named director of the Lane County Child Evangelism Fellowship.

Mrs. Kelts will succeed Mrs. Tom Inglis of Eugene, who has been director on a part-time basis. The post now is full-time.

Child Evangelism Fellowship in Lane County is an inter-denominational work for grade-school children. Interested children are organized into "Good News Clubs," which meet in homes where volunteers lead work in Bible stories, songs and flannelgraph lessons.

Last year, 18 classes were held weekly during the school year, and officials estimate that 1,500 children were "reached" with the Bible lessons.

The Lane County work is a chapter of the state organization, which is organized as a non-profit corporation. International headquarters of the program is in Grand Rapids, Mich. Work has been conducted in Lane County for 20 years.

Mrs. Kelts, who lives at 2225 Grant St., Eugene, has contributed articles to a number of publications, including "Christian Life" magazine, and has served on the magazine's editorial staff.

Corvallis Pastor Guest Speaker

Guest speaker Sunday at Trinity Methodist Church, 440 Maxwell Rd., Eugene, will be the Rev. Robert N. Peters, of the First Methodist Church, Corvallis.

The Reverend Peters, who is director of the Wesley Foundation in Corvallis, will be featured at 9 a.m. standard, 10 a.m. daylight, at the church's morning worship service.

He is a former pastor of the Sutherland-Wilbur Methodist churches, and is a graduate of Lewis and Clark College and the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif.

In September, he will enter Willamette University to begin work for a master's degree in intellectual history.

Vocal, Organ Music Scheduled Monday

A sacred concert of vocal and organ music will be given Monday at Grace Lutheran Church, 17th Avenue and Hilyard Street, Eugene, by the Foresters, a male quartet from Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill.

The concert, scheduled for 7 p.m. standard, 8 p.m. daylight is open to the public.

After the concert, the foresters will show "Go as a Teach," a color movie, and sing some secular musical numbers.

July, August to See Church Meetings

Many Emerald Empire residents have dates circled on calendars for late July and early August, when a number of church conventions and meetings are scheduled.

Members of the Church of the Nazarene will be returning today from the annual Oregon-Pacific district assembly of the denomination at Clackamas.

The assembly, which concluded Friday evening, precedes the denomination's annual camp meeting. This will end July 29.

A number of Emerald Empire men expect to attend the National Catholic Laymen's Retreat Conference in Portland Thursday through the following Saturday.

The conference's keynote address will be given by Bishop

John J. Wright of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Senator Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota will be speaker at the closing banquet July 28.

Sessions will be held at the Sheraton-Portland Hotel.

Some 6,000 delegates are expected in Longview, Wash., Aug. 3-5 for the "Courageous Ministers District Assembly" of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Fifty Eugene delegates are expected to attend the assembly, which will be concluded on Aug. 5 by a public talk by a representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society's headquarters office in Brooklyn, N.Y. The representative, Vernon C. Wisegarver, will speak on "Take Courage—God's Kingdom is at Hand."

Charles E. Stefanik, presiding minister of Eugene North Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, will present a report at the assembly on expansion of the sect in the Eugene area.

2 Churches Set Vacation Bible Schools

Two Eugene churches, Lighthouse Temple and First Christian Church, will begin annual vacation Bible school classes Monday.

"Adventuring With Christ" will be the theme at Lighthouse Temple, 1209 Olive St., Eugene. Classes for children three years and older and for adults are scheduled from 7 to 9 p.m. standard, 8 to 10 p.m. daylight, at the church. Last classes will be Friday night.

High school age students and adults will study the Ten Commandments, led by the church's pastor, the Rev. Herbert Bradshaw. The public is welcome.

First Christian Church has chosen "The Bible" as this year's vacation church school theme. Classes will be conducted at the church Monday through Friday for children kindergarten through junior high ages from 8 to 10:30 a.m. standard, 9 to 11:30 a.m. daylight. Children attending the school are asked to wear play clothes.

Episcopalian Vicar Takes Olympia Post

The Rev. Robert F. Burger, vicar of St. John's Episcopal Church in Springfield for the past six years, has accepted a post with the Diocese of Olympia, Wash.

St. John's new vicar, the Reverend Burger said, will be the Rev. Theodore Ehrlich, now a supply pastor for the Diocese of Oregon. The Reverend Ehrlich's family lives in Eugene.

Curate and Chaplain

The Reverend Burger will be giving his farewell sermon at the Springfield church on July 29. In Washington, he will be curate of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Bellingham, and Episcopal chaplain at Western Washington State College, Bellingham.

This latter post, he said, will be his major work.

Mission Supply Minister

While in Springfield, the Reverend Burger, who lives at 1064 Kelly St., Apt. 3, has been active in the Springfield Ministerial Assn., especially with the association's chaplaincy program at Skipworth Home.

The Reverend Ehrlich most recently has been supply minister at St. Aiden Mission in Portland, the mission in the diocese with a portable church building. He is married, and has two children.

Former Eugene Residents To Work in Congo Mission

Dr. and Mrs. Dale Walker of Troutdale, former Eugene residents, will leave Oregon in early September for the Congo, where Walker, a dentist, will serve with Africa Inland Mission.

Walker, 28, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker, 1797 W. 25th Ave., Eugene. His wife, Carla, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wessel, 3115 Royal Ave., Eugene.

In Africa, the Walker family will be stationed at Oicha, the Congo, where the mission has a large hospital. Walker will be the first dentist to work with the hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Walker and the

First Baptist Will Honor Missionaries

First Baptist Church, Eugene, will honor two of its members Sunday at a reception following the evening service.

The church members are the Rev. and Mrs. Don Smith, who will leave Eugene next week for another tour of duty in Africa with the South Africa General Mission.

The Rev. Smith, a graduate of the University of Oregon, will be guest speaker at the church's Sunday evening service, which begins at 7 p.m. standard, 8 p.m. daylight.

His topic, "In Their Minds Will I Write Them," will be concerned with his mission work — a Christian publishing house in the Republic of South Africa that issues "Our Africa," the continent's fourth largest magazine.

Headquarters of the publishing company is in the suburbs of Johannesburg.

Sunday's reception, originally scheduled several weeks ago, was delayed by the Rev. Smith's recent illness.

In Eugene, the couple has been staying with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. W. E. Schick, 337 E. 13th Ave.

Wesley Methodist Approves Plans

Members of Wesley Methodist Church, 400 Cal Young Rd., Eugene, have approved preliminary plans for a $100,000 sanctuary.

Favorable votes by the church's Quarterly Conference and the congregation were required before the church's officials and building committee could proceed with plans.

Ground-breaking ceremonies are now scheduled for Sept. 9, and church officials hope that the sanctuary can be completed by April 1 for consecration on Easter Sunday.

Church Notes

Larry A. Belle, superintendent of the Children's Farm Home near Corvallis, has announced the appointment of the Rev. Orville Clark as full-time chaplain at the home.

The Rev. Clark, a graduate of Willamette University in Salem, is an ordained minister for the Assemblies of God, with headquarters in Springfield, Mo.

He has been pastor at Oceanlake Assembly of God Church for the past five years. Regular chapel services at the home will begin July 29 with the arrival of the new chaplain and his wife.

SPRINGFIELD CHRISTIAN Church Deacons have elected Willard Morgan chairman, and the church's elders elected Bill Co as chairman. Mrs. Tom McCord has been elected chairman of the deaconesses at Northwood Christian Church.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH's official board has elected Cecil R. Warner of Eugene as chairman. Ansel Hyland, retiring chairman, was elected vice-chairman. Ruth Bascue was re-elected chairman of the church's deaconesses, and R. C. Royston was elected chairman of the elders.

"DIRECTOR'S NIGHT" will be observed tonight at the bi-weekly rally of Eugene Youth for Christ. Al Phillips, director of the Eugene YFC, will be speaker. The rally is scheduled for 7 p.m. standard, 8 p.m. daylight, at Lighthouse Temple, 1209 Olive St., Eugene, and the public is invited.

MEMBERS of the Junior Luther League of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church will have a pie and cake sale July 28 from 2 to 6 p.m. standard, 3 to 7 p.m. daylight, at Rumford's Grocery, on the Lorane Highway next to Spencer Creek Grange Hall.

AMBASSADORS, an interdenominational organization for single adults, will meet Sunday at 5:30 p.m. standard, 6:30 p.m. daylight, in the parlor of Central Presbyterian Church, 15th Avenue and Ferry Street, Eugene. Guest speaker will be Ted McReynolds, new assistant director of dormitories at the University of Oregon. His topic will be "The Christian Challenge on Campus." The meeting is open to all single adults.

A TEA TUESDAY in Eugene will honor Mrs. Kenneth Simonds, wife of the associate pastor of First Methodist Church, Eugene, and Mrs. Charles McCarthy, wife of the church's new minister of education. The tea, sponsored by First Methodist's Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. standard, 3 to 5 p.m. daylight, in the garden of Mrs. Charles Anderson, 1963 Alder St., Eugene. Mrs. E. J. Ashenbrenner and Mrs. Robert Kingsbury will preside at the tea table. A nursery will be maintained at the church to care for small children.
