

By Wenatchee

Ems Handed Two Defeats

WENATCHEE—The Eugene Emeralds errorless ball, outhit the Wenatchee Chiefs 17-13, but the Chiefs posted 4-2 and 5-4 decisions in a Northwest League baseball doubleheader Friday night. The Ems left 20 men stranded on the bases—an important factor.

The two clubs meet again tonight and play a doubleheader Sunday.

Three home runs accounted for all the Wenatchee runs in the second game, the big one a three-tally poke by Dan Combs in the second inning. Ken Fruchter and Nelson Mathews hit back-to-back round trippers in the third.

Dick Dietz had given Eugene the lead with a two-run circuit clout in the second. The Emeralds picked up two earned runs in the seventh but saw the rally fizzle with the bases loaded when pitcher Don Isaacs retired the side.

Eugene also counted first in the opener when pitcher Ed Feldman singled home a tally from third in the second frame. Wenatchee countered with two, on three singles and a force play, and was in front to stay.

Manager Bud Byerly's new infield combination for the Ems of Julio Linares at second and Don Pope at short came up with three double plays in the two games. Damaso Blanco has been moved from short to third.

San Francisco cooled off the red-hot Bucs, 6-3, Friday night before an overflow crowd of 37,705, largest here in two years. It was the sixth time in seven tries that the Giants have bounced the Pirates this year and ended a four-game Buc win string.

The Giants used a little bit of everything to win — pitching, power and defense.

Willie McCovey hit his 27th homer with a man aboard in the first off Vern Law and the Giants were never headed. It swelled Mays' RBI total to 85 for the year.

Willie McCovey drilled his 13th roundtripper in the third and by that time it was 4-0 and time for Law to head for the showers.

Pittsburgh fought back off the Giants' Jack Sanford. The Pirates picked up one in the fourth and might have violently changed the course of events then and there had not Mays hailed down a 425-foot drive by Don Hoak in sensational style.

Pittsburgh scored two more in the seventh and Don Larson was called in to cut the rally short. The big guy did not allow a hit over the last 2 1/2 innings.

Giants ab r h b Pirates ab r h b
Hiller, 2b 3 0 1 0 Virdon, cf 4 1 1 1
d-Nieman 1 0 0 0 Groat, 3b 3 0 1 1
Bowman, 2b 0 0 0 0 Sklener, lf 3 0 0 0
Dwight, 3b 2 2 0 0 Stuart, 1b 3 0 0 0
Mays, cf 4 2 2 0 Cimber, rf 4 1 2 0
McCovey, lf 0 0 0 0 Burgess, c 3 0 1 0
e-Kuenn, lf 0 0 0 0 Hoak, 2b 3 0 0 1
F. Alou, rf 4 0 0 0 Mrazek, 2b 4 0 1 0
Cepeda, 1b 4 0 1 0 Law, p 0 0 0 0
Haller, c 4 1 2 0 Schofield, 1 0 0 0
Pagan, ss 4 0 0 0 Lamabe, p 0 0 0 0
Larsen, p 3 0 1 0 Marshall, 1 0 0 0
Sanford, p 1 0 0 0 Strdy, p 0 0 0 0
Totals 33 63 64 Totals 31 37 37

a—Grounded out for Law in 3rd; b—Grounded out for Hoak in 4th; c—Doubled for Sturdivant in 7th; d—Filed out for Hiller in 8th; e—Walked intentionally for McCovey in 8th; f—Grounded out for Francis in 9th.

San Francisco 211 000 020-6
Pittsburgh 000 100 200-3

E—Sturdivant, Stuart. PO-A—San Francisco 27-14, Pittsburgh 27-17. DP—Burgess, 1 OB—San Francisco 3, Pittsburgh 6. 2B—Haller, Clemente, Cepeda, Goss, Mays. 3B—Virdon. HR—Mays, McCovey. SF—Hoak.
Sanford (W, 12-6) 6 1/2 3 4 3 4 3
Larsen 2 0 0 0 0 0 0
Law (L, 8-5) 3 5 4 4 0 0
Lamabe 1 1 0 0 0 0
Sturdivant 3 1 0 0 1 1
Cimber 1 1 2 0 2 0
Olivo 1 0 0 0 0 0
Francis 1 0 0 0 0 0
U—Burkhart, Pelekoudas, Walsh, Conlan. T—2:51. A—37,705.

Beats Ball Milwaukee outfielder Hank Aaron swung into third base Friday night after teammate Lee Maye lofted a fly ball to Philadelphia right fielder John Callison. Callison's throw to Philie third baseman Don Demeter was not in time to catch Aaron after the fleet Brave had tagged up in second following the

Clay KOs Laborante In Fifth

Cassius' Win Was Expected

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cassius Clay is proving himself a man of his word, far-fetched as it sometimes may be.

For days he predicted he would knock out the giant Argentine heavyweight, Alejandro Laborante. He named the round: the fifth.

He told it to boxing writers, to radio and television audiences.

Friday night he knocked out Laborante—in the fifth round. A crowd of about 11,000 saw the prediction come true in the sports arena, and paid an estimated $64,000 for the sight.

Lavorante, at 208, nine pounds heavier than Clay, was unquestionably the toughest opponent in the unblemished 15-bout career of the 20-year-old Louisville, Ky., youngster. He's won 12 by knockouts.

The end came in 1:48 minutes of the explosive fifth round, only the fourth loss in 23 matches for the handsome 25-year-old Laborante.

Referee Tommy Hart didn't even bother to count on this, the second and concluding knockdown in the final round of the scheduled 10-rounder.

"It took the 'Old Man' 10 rounds. I'll do it in five," said the Louisville Lip in a pre-fight Clay pep talk to Cassius. "A good young man is twice as good as a good old man."

The "Old Man" was Archie Moore, who knocked out Laborante in 10 rounds earlier this year. Sure enough, Cassius deposited Laborante in a corner nearest where old Archie himself was sitting at ringside.

Clay almost got his knockout in the second round. Laborante was in trouble from Cassius' pinpoint rights and lefts to the head. But he didn't go down.

"I didn't hold back that round. I just didn't go all out," said Cassius. "I wanted to make my prediction come true."

He reflected a moment. "People get mad if I predict wrong." Consulted immediately after the knockout, Archie seemed undisturbed that he may soon meet Cassius. But first, he was interested in the financial aspects of such a match.

"I'll be glad to accommodate Mr. Clay—if the people want it."

Clay is a fighter of the old school. The Argentine middleweight likes nothing better than taking on a rough, tough fighter like himself.

The 25-year-old invader faces Don Fullmer, 23-year-old kid brother of NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, in a televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight. The fight is rated about even in the betting.

The slugging Argentine has won his last six fights by knockouts. He started the streak at the Garden by stopping Canadian Willie Greaves in the eighth round, July 15, 1961. He has an impressive knockout record of 35 in 44 fights. His won-lost-draw record is 37-6-1.

Young Don, who fights Eugene's Phil Moyer August 10 if he comes out of the Rivero bout in reasonably good shape, is confident he can handle the South American himself. The tall crested kid from West Jordan, Utah, prefers to have an opponent come to him so he can meet him with crisp counter-punches.

He has a 26-6-1 record, including nine knockouts. In two outings this year he outpointed New Englander Joe De Nucci and dropped a close verdict to Terry Downes in London. He had the British champion on the deck.

Staff Sez: LET'S GO BOATING EVERYTHING YOU NEED IS HERE!

Check This Complete 'Sportsman's Package'

Here's what you get:

- Rugged 14' SKI FLITE "142" GLASTROM BOAT
- Powerful 28 h.p. Johnson Motor
- Little Dude Trailer
- Pair of Water Skis
- 4 Life Jackets
- Boat Whistle
- Fire Extinguisher
- Ski Belt
- Tie-up Lines
- Paddle

Complete Package for only $1449⁰⁰
$345.00 Down - $44.92 Monthly

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

Staff JENNINGS
305 Coburg Road DI 3-3351

catch. The umpire is Augie Donatelli. The Braves went on to win this game the first of a two-night doubleheader, but Phil came back in the second game behind the pitching of Art Mahaffey to gain a split of the twin bill.

Palmer Still Trailing Ford in PGA

Arnold Palmer is almost hidden behind a tree as he hits out of the rough Friday on the third hole at the Aronimink Golf Club in Newtown Square, Pa., during the second round of the PGA. Palmer was in trouble several times during the day. Here he was about four feet from the tree but had comparatively free swinging space.

Eugene Register-Guard

LANE COUNTY'S HOME NEWSPAPER

SECTION B EUGENE, OREGON, SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1962

In Televised Bout Fullmer Meets Rivero Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Juan "Rocky" Rivero is a fighter of the old school. The Argentine middleweight likes nothing better than taking on a rough, tough fighter like himself.

The 25-year-old invader faces Don Fullmer, 23-year-old kid brother of NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer, in a televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden tonight. The fight is rated about even in the betting.

The slugging Argentine has won his last six fights by knockouts. He started the streak at the Garden by stopping Canadian Willie Greaves in the eighth round, July 15, 1961. He has an impressive knockout record of 35 in 44 fights. His won-lost-draw record is 37-6-1.

Young Don, who fights Eugene's Phil Moyer August 10 if he comes out of the Rivero bout in reasonably good shape, is confident he can handle the South American himself. The tall crested kid from West Jordan, Utah, prefers to have an opponent come to him so he can meet him with crisp counter-punches.

He has a 26-6-1 record, including nine knockouts. In two outings this year he outpointed New Englander Joe De Nucci and dropped a close verdict to Terry Downes in London. He had the British champion on the deck.

Staff Sez: LET'S GO BOATING EVERYTHING YOU NEED IS HERE!

Check This Complete 'Sportsman's Package'

Here's what you get:

- Rugged 14' SKI FLITE "142" GLASTROM BOAT
- Powerful 28 h.p. Johnson Motor
- Little Dude Trailer
- Pair of Water Skis
- 4 Life Jackets
- Boat Whistle
- Fire Extinguisher
- Ski Belt
- Tie-up Lines
- Paddle

Complete Package for only $1449⁰⁰
$345.00 Down - $44.92 Monthly

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

Staff JENNINGS
305 Coburg Road DI 3-3351

Arnie Five Strokes Off Pace In 13th With 36 Holes Left

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa. (AP)—He's five strokes behind the leader; there are 12 players ahead of him and seven more tied with him with only 36 holes to go. But Arnold Palmer doesn't think he's out of the PGA championship.

Palmer's comments, after surviving what he considered a sour round in spite of the figures on the scoreboard, were typical of the attitude that has made the Latrobe, Pa., strong man one of the most exciting figures in sports.

"I don't feel like I'm out of the tournament yet. I still have a chance," he said before heading into today's third round.

Palmer's 72 over the hilly, heat-drenched 7,045-yard Aronimink course was one that would have satisfied most of the pros following this big prize.

Doug Ford shot a second straight 69 for the 36-hole lead. He's the only player who beat par on each of the first two rounds.

Ford's 138 total put him just one stroke ahead of Cary Middlecoff, a two-time National Open champion, Gary Player of South Africa, and George Bayer of Miami.

At 140 were Boh McCallister, a talkative young pro from Claremont, Calif., who seemed slightly dazed to find himself among the leaders, and burly 50-year-old John Barnum of Belmont, Mich., who shed his illusions shortly after taking the first round lead.

The crowds, which have been setting records every day of this tournament, aren't counting Palmer out any more than Arnie himself. He isn't out of reach of the leaders and the Palmer finish in golf now is as famous as the Garrison finish in horse races was years ago.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

World Marks May Be Set For Telstar

NEW YORK (AP)—American sprinter Wilma Rudolph Ward and Russian high jumper Valery Brumel will attempt to establish world records Monday on a live United States-to-Europe Telstar television transmission, an ASE television spokesman announced Friday.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.

They will stay over for the Monday record attempts, which will be part of an 18-minute transmission starting at 1:59 p.m. daylight, 12:59 standard. Their performances will be the only sports portion of the telecast.

Both Mrs. Ward, a triple gold winner in the 1960 Olympics, and Brumel, holder of the world high jump record, will compete in the Russian-American track meet at Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., this weekend.