

Reds Down Dodgers On Robinson's Slam

CINCINNATI (AP)—"Without question, this is my greatest year in baseball," Frank Robinson said happily Monday night after hitting his grand-slam homer that gave the Cincinnati Reds a 10th-inning 7-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The triumph enabled Cincinnati to break even with the National League leaders in their four-game series at Crosley Field. The Reds are in third place — 5½ games behind Los Angeles and two games behind second-place San Francisco.

And, even though all of manager Fred Hutchinson's hopes were not realized, Hutch still managed a smile as his team left for Chicago.

"We're alive," he said of the Reds' hopes to repeat as league champions.

Robinson wasn't the only hero of the big game. The 26,852 fans also spent a lot of lung power cheering pitcher Bob Purkey (194) and third baseman Gene Freese, who appeared in the line-up for the first time this season and tied the game with a ninth-inning single.

"My best hit of the season," Freese said afterwards with a grin. It was also the second of the right-handed power hitter who hit 26 home runs last year, broke his ankle in spring training this year and returned to the active list only last week.

Robinson reached over to tap his shoulder and say, "Nice going, Gene."

"Yeah, but I would have liked that grand slammer you hit in the 10th inning," Freese replied.

While the grand slam would have brightened up Freese's record considerably, he didn't do badly with two hits in four times at bat. On his first 1962 trip to the plate, last week, he drew a walk.

As for Robinson, the big rightfielder continued happily: "Undoubtedly my greatest year in baseball. That grand slam was my third this season and fourth I've hit.

"I really think the Reds will go on from here. We have the spirit and the will."

Robinson's mighty blast came after pinch-hitter Jerry Lynch opened with a single and went to second on Leo Cardenas' bunt on which both hands were safe. Marty Keough forced Cardenas and then the Dodgers, after a pitchers mound conference, elected to have the right-handed pitcher Larry Sherry walk Vada Pinson to get to Robinson, who swings from the right.

The strategy backfired. Prior to Freese's tying hit, the Dodgers had gone into a 3-1 lead in the sixth when Willie and Tommy Davis hit back-to-back home runs off Purkey.

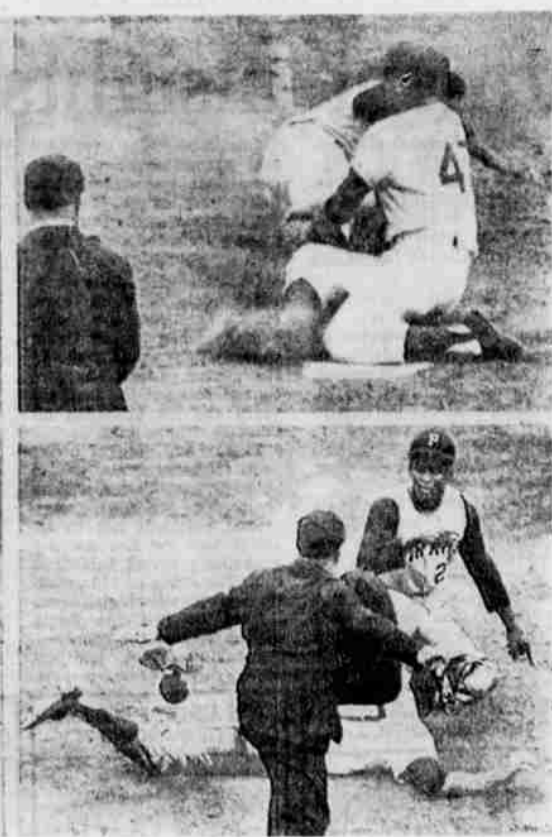

Freese's tying hit came after Robinson had singled and gone to second on a sacrifice.

Earlier, Freese, despite his still ailing ankle, had legged it all the way home from first on a double by Don Zimmer.

Stan Williams was the starter for the Dodgers and was followed by Ron Perranoski and then Sherry on the mound.

The Reds got their opening run in the first when Cardenas led off with a double and finally scored after an infield out and Pinson's sacrifice fly.

That stood up until the fourth when a single by Wally Moon and Duke Snider's double produced the tying tally and set the stage for the Davis home runs in the sixth.

Kansas City Tops New York by 7-3

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Roger Maris slammed a three-run homer for the New York Yankees in the first inning Monday but their attack sputtered out after that and the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Yankees 7-3.

The victory gave the Athletics the series, three games to two. Monday's game was played before a crowd of 13,721, bringing the series attendance to 101,720, an all-time Kansas City record.

The Athletics started their rally against the Yankees in the fourth inning when they scored two runs. Bob Del Greco singled. With one out Jerry Lumpe hit a grounder to Bobby Richardson that bounced off his glove for an error. Norm Siebern singled Del Greco home and Manny Jimenez drove Lumpe in with a sacrifice fly.

Bill Bryan tripled home a run in the fifth and scored himself on a double by Del Greco. Ed ing the eighth with a triple.

Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates is safe at home on an error by pitcher Jay Hook of the New York Mets in the fifth inning of the first game of a two-night doubleheader at New York's Polo Grounds Monday night.

The loser was righthander Bob Miller — beaten for the tenth straight time without a victory. Pittsburgh scored the deciding runs, breaking a 2-2 tie, in the fourth on an infield hit by Roberto Clemente, an error by Rick Herscher, a walk, a double by Bill Mazeroski and a wild pitch.

The Mets pulled to within one run, at 4-3, in the seventh on a single by Herscher, a wild pitch and a single by Felix Mantilla, but Olivo relieved McBean and closed out the rally and Face took over to stop the New Yorkers without a hit in the last two innings.

Pittsburgh clinched it with Skinner's run in the eighth, scored on a passed ball, and added another in the ninth on a triple by Bill Virdon and Dick Groat's sacrifice fly.

The current streak is the second longest in the Mets' short — but streak-loaded — career. Earlier in the season they lost 17 straight.

They have another doubleheader with Pittsburgh Tuesday.

Wes Covington and Clay Dalrymple hit back-to-back home runs in the Phillies' half of the fifth inning after two were out. It was Covington's eighth and Dalrymple's ninth of the season.

Houston left 12 men stranded on the bases in the free-hitting game but the only run the Colts were able to score off Dallas Green was in the third when Norm Larker doubled and Roman Mejias and Bob Aspromonte singled. Green is now 6-5.

The Phillies got three runs in the same inning on singles by Jon Callison, Tony Gonzalez and Covington and two errors by J. C. Hartman.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates extended the New York Mets' latest losing streak to 12 Monday night, sweeping a two-night doubleheader 2-0 behind Bob Friend and 6-3 as Bob Skinner rapped a two-run homer and a triple.

Friend, beating the Mets for the fourth time without a loss, allowed only four singles in the opener while boosting his record to 14-11. An unearned run in the fifth inning on an error by losing pitcher Jay Hook (7-14) and Smokey Burgess' seventh-inning homer accounted for the two runs that did it.

In the nightcap, rookie Al McBean won his 13th against eight losses with help from the Pirates' bullpen pair of Diomedes Olivo and Roy Face. Skinner hit a two-run inside-the-park home run in the first inning and scored another run after open-
