Terry Harbour, 14, 636 Pheasant Drive, Eugene, Oregon REGISTER-GUARD JUNIOR DEALER OF THE MONTH
Best all-around paper boy in July

HAVE PAPER — WILL TRAVEL . . .
Terry Harbour's route is Gamebird Village where his 71 customers are "all nice people." Such items as new starts of the paper — no complaints because of papers tossed to the roof and prompt first of the month payment for his regular order of newspapers are the basis of Terry's winning a $25 band, a golden honor bag and a chance to win Junior Dealer of the year this fall. Terry thinks his route is good training in managing money and in "staying with a job."

HOPE OF AMERICA . . .
If young people are the nation's hope, then Terry is a good example. He plans to go to the University of Oregon and later to be a dentist. He is a ninth grader at Col Young where his favorite study is history. He is a former Scout and attends the Emanuel Baptist Church. Terry's hobbies are swimming and studying Indian lore. He enjoyed particularly the books, "Fire Hunter" and "Shasta, the Wolf." In sports he likes football, baseball and soccer.

BEGAN WORK AS SUB . . .
Terry subbed for his brother, Mike, off and on for about a year before taking over the route. He has 3 brothers, Mike, 17, Dennis, 12, Tim, 7 and one sister, Patricia, 10. He is the son of Merle and Irene Harbour. Mr. Harbour is an inspector for Southern Pacific. Although his mother is from Oklahoma and his father from Canada, Terry is a native Oregonian, born in Eugene. His best friend and present substitute on the paper route is David Keeney, 1780 Colonial Drive.

Congratulations, Terry.
