Aid Plan Announced

OSLO (AP)—Norway will allot $8 million for aid to developing countries next year, officials announced.

Two Charged In Assault On Policeman

A husband and wife from Coos Bay were charged Friday with assault with a dangerous weapon upon a state policeman who was investigating the report of a car in the ditch.

Gerald James Brown, 40, and his wife, Betty, 33, were arraigned in Lane County District Court and requested a preliminary hearing. The hearing was set for Tuesday. Bail was set at $2,500 each.

Car In Ditch

State police said the incident occurred shortly before 10 p.m. Thursday when officer Richard Frambes arrived at a site several blocks east of Springfield's city limits on Highway 126 to investigate a report of a car in a ditch.

Frambes radioed for assistance after arriving, then arrested Brown sitting in the front seat of the car, on a drunk charge, state police said.

As Frambes attempted to remove Brown from the car, Mrs. Brown grabbed a rifle from the back seat and pointed it at the officer, police said.

Frambes lunged for the rifle, and as he was holding the barrel away, Brown began to choke and beat him. Mrs. Brown kicked him in the head, police said.

Officers Arrived

Although nearly unconscious from being choked, Frambes was able to get out of the car, but then Brown took the rifle and went after him, police added.

Just then, two Springfield police officers arrived and one, drawing his gun, ordered Brown to give up the rifle, reports said. Brown finally gave the rifle to an unidentified passerby.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown were jailed on misdemeanor charges, and the felony assault charge was filed Friday.

Frambes suffered cuts over the eye and on the head.
