This Marcola school bus received only a dented hood when a wind gust hit the garage where it was parked. The roof was lifted into the air and came down on the collapsed walls of the garage. Some 20 houses in the Marcola area were damaged by falling trees.

Debris litters street in front of Keith Roberts automobile showroom in Cottage Grove. Roof was swept off the two-story building by heavy winds Friday. Flying boards also damaged used cars in the lot next to the showroom.

A lonely National Guardsman patrols Cottage Grove. Twenty-five Guardsmen were called out late Friday when city police reported they were unable to patrol the city. The Guardsmen expect to be relieved Saturday if police can round up enough reserves.

Extreme winds toppled this tall fir across Highway 36 near the intersection of Highway 101 at Florence. At 5:50 p.m. Friday driving conditions in the area were hazardous.
