

Old Story

The love story of Romeo and Juliet is updated and re-located in "West Side Story," opening Wednesday at the Fox Theatre. Natalie Wood, as Maria, sings to her beloved Tony from the landing on a tenement fire escape, not a balcony. And instead of the rivalry between the Montagues and the Capulets, the quarrel is between the Jets and the Sharks, two teen-age gangs. The movie won ten Academy Awards.

Picture Previews

'West Side Story' Billed

"West Side Story"—winner of ten Academy Awards, including one for "best picture"—will open in Eugene Wednesday.

The musical-tragedy will play as a single feature at the Fox for an extended run.

Lyrics are by Stephen Sondheim and music by Leonard Bernstein. It was a smash hit on Broadway.

The movie version stars Natalie Wood as Maria and Richard Beymer as Tony the modern-day Romeo who woos her from a New York tenement fire escape.

Set on New York City's west side, the movie details the hostility between two gangs, the Jets (Beymer's old gang) and the Sharks, led by George Chakiris.

Members of the two gangs, their girls and Maria, the sister of the leader of the Sharks, go to a dance in "neutral" territory. But events at the dance touch off violence, a love affair and tragedy.

"Kid Galahad," the movie that stars Elvis as a young boxer with title hopes, will continue its run this week at the New Eugene Drive in in Glenwood, with "Mr. Hobbs Takes a Vacation," a comedy, as co-feature.

Walt Disney's musical, "Lady and the Tramp," a full-length cartoon feature, will continue at the McDonald through Tuesday. To complete the family double-bill, the McDonald is playing "Almost Angels," a film account of the adventures of the Vienna Boys Choir.

The rest of the movie menu for the coming week features re-runs—comedies and dramas. Abbott and Costello are featured in "The Wistful Widow of Wagon Gap," co-feature with "The Kettles in the Ozarks" at the Heilig Theatre through Tuesday.

"The Chapman Report," a documentary-drama about four suburban, well-to-do women who participate in a survey of sex habits, will open with "No Down Payment" Wednesday at the McDonald Theatre.

Shirley MacLaine has a light-hearted role—or really, two roles—in "My Geisha," playing through Tuesday at the McKenzie Theatre in Springfield. She is cast as the wife of a motion picture director, Yves Montand, who is seeking a Japanese geisha to star in a new film. Miss MacLaine is determined to get the part—and her husband's full attention. So she goes to Japan to become a geisha and the high jinks start.

"Jessica," starring Angie Dickinson and Maurice Chevalier in a drama set in Italy, is the co-feature.

Opening Wednesday at the McKenzie is "Hatari," a movie that wraps its plot around color scenes of game hunting—for zebras—in Africa. John Wayne, Red Buttons and Elsa Martinelli star.

Two highly-rated movies from some months back, "Breakfast at Tiffany's" with Audrey Hepburn and "The World of Susie Wong," starring Nancy Kwan and William Holden, will play through Thursday at the Mayflower Theatre. On Friday, "Bachelor in Paradise" starring Bob Hope, will open there, co-feature is "Sweet Bird of Youth."
