

Wedding Book

Bridal Pair to make Home in Hawaii

MRS. JEFFRE ALLAN ANKENY

(Kennell-Ellis photo)

Miss Beverly Jane Allum wore a full-length gown of taffeta and lace fashioned with a scalloped skirt of taffeta over wide tiers of lace and a deep yoke of lace on the bodice when she was married to Jeffrey Allan Ankeny Oct. 13 in Norkenzie Christian Church. The ceremony was read by Mr. Donald W. Kelley before a background of lavender and white chrysanthemums. Lowell Chase sang before the ceremony and J. Loren Edmiston played the organ music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allum of Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Joe N. Ankeny of Junction City are parents of the bridegroom.

With her wedding gown Miss Allum wore a float veil of illusion held by a large taffeta rose and she carried white roses and stephanotis, with lavender chrysanthemums.

Mrs. James Ankeny, the groom's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. She wore a bell-skirted gown of lavender brocaded taffeta and carried lavender chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Miss Billie Allum, the bride's sister, Miss Winona Allum and Miss Rita Ankeny of Junction City, the groom's sister. All wore gowns of lavender taffeta with bell skirts and carried lavender chrysanthemums. Jacqueline Allum and Gregory Allum, small sister and brother of the bride, were flower girl and ringbearer.

James Ankeny was his brother's best man. Ushers were Gary Whiteaker, Jerry Myers and Terry Bacon.

A reception followed at the Allum home on Law Lane, where Mrs. Richard Babcock and Mrs. James Haynie cut the cake. Mrs. Lloyd Whiteaker and Mrs. Homer Payne served coffee and punch. Miss Ressa Whiteaker presented the guest book.

The bride wore an olive green suede sheath for their wedding trip to Portland. The couple left later in the week for Hawaii where they will make their home. Mr. Ankeny is stationed at Pearl Harbor with the U. S. Navy.

MRS. LEE WRIGHT DEAN

(Scott Hill photo)

Candles Illumine Rite After Storm

The wedding of Miss Linda Murphy of Alvadore and Lee Wright Dean of Astoria, which took place in St. Helen's Catholic Church at Junction City Saturday, Oct. 13, was by candlelight, and the soloist sang unaccompanied, because the storm had cut off power in the church. The ceremony was performed at 3 p.m. by the Rev. Lowell Blackburn, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern L. Murphy of Alvadore, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Carl Perry of Cheshire and Eugene Dean of San Jose, Calif. Kenneth Ammerman sang "The Lord's Prayer" and decorations were white stock and red carnations. The bride, a florist, designed all the bouquets.

Miss Murphy's bridal gown was of white slipper satin in street length, with bateau neckline and short sleeves. The fitted bodice was dropped, and an overskirt of lace flouncing flared from the hipline. She wore an illusion veil held by a small pearl crown with pearl drop ornament, and she carried a white orchid ringed by white chrysanthemums and with lemon blossoms tied in its shower ribbons. Mrs. Marvin King, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of red brocade, styled like the bride's with bateau neckline and short sleeves, the skirt pleated and with bow belt. She wore a red veiling headdress and carried white pompon chrysanthemums in a cornucopia basket.

Similarly gowned and carrying the same type of bouquet were the bridesmaids, Miss Caroline Jacobson of Junction City and Miss Sue Sanborn of Cheshire; also the junior bridesmaid, Lora Mae Perry, groom's sister. Dara Lyons, flower girl, wore a white organza frock with red sash. Carl Perry, ringbearer and brother of the groom, wore a miniature uniform of the Coast Guard.

Clyde Eddings of Cheshire was best man for Mr. Dean, and ushers were William Sanborn of Junction City and Clifford Perry of Cheshire, junior usher.

At the reception afterward, Mrs. Miner Mickelson, Cheshire, cut the cake; Miss Geraldine Huey served punch and Miss Joan Drew poured coffee. Miss Jean McClure received gifts and Miss Beryl Boggs attended the guest book.

After touring California for a week, the couple is at home at Astoria, where the groom is stationed in the U.S. Coast Guard.

Weaver-Chetwood

MRS. JERRY WEAVER

(Nolph photo)

Candles provided illumination for the wedding of Miss Patricia Chetwood and Jerry Dee Weaver Saturday afternoon in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Eugene, and for the reception which followed. Because of the storm, there were no other lights. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Heidt. Mrs. Dale Cooley played the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett M. Chetwood of Springfield, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weaver of Brownsville.

The bride's gown was of nylon embroidered lace over taffeta, with jeweled neckline. A cap of silk with seed pearls and sequins held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white rosebuds tied with white ribbons. She carried a handkerchief belonging to an aunt, Mrs. George Burst of San Diego.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Woods of Springfield, in a dress of pale blue brocade with matching satin hat, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations and rosebuds. Miss Mary Pat Noud was maid of honor, and other attendants were Mrs. Milton Batson of Portland and Miss Karen Moe of Ashland, both aunts of the bride; Miss Rosella Thompson of Springfield and Debra Chetwood, 10, bride's sister, junior bridesmaid. All were gowned like the matron and carried similar bouquets. Jaylene Hamlin, 6, was flower girl and James Hamlin, 4, was ring bearer.

Thomas Weaver was his brother's best man and ushers were Michael Chetwood and Randy Weaver, brothers of the pair; also David Berg, bride's cousin, and Jerry Russell.

At the reception in Columbus Hall, Mrs. David Berg, bride's aunt, poured coffee; Mrs. Harold Thompson of Anchorage, Alaska, and Mrs. George Hill of San Diego, Calif., aunts, served punch; Mrs. George Burst, another aunt, served the cake, which was cut by Mrs. Dorothy Moore. Miss Eugenia Karms, another aunt, was reception hostess. At the guest book was Mrs. Hugh Stewart of Springfield. There was dancing at the reception.

Following a week end trip to Salem, the couple is at home in Eugene at 1650 E. 15th Ave. Both attend University of Oregon.

MRS. JERRY SAGEN

(Betts photo)

Sagen-Ashby

Miss Sharon Louise Ashby wore a street-length gown of white wool with a fingertip veil and carried a white orchid with stephanotis when she was married to Gerry Wynn Sagen Oct. 6 in Central Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Walter H. Gray officiated.

Miss Ashby is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ashby and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sagen.

Mrs. Patrick Thometz, the bride's honor attendant, wore a beige lace sheath dress. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Patrick Thometz was best man. A basket of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar for the double-ring ceremony which was attended by members of the families and close friends. Miss Judy Sagen, sister of the bridegroom, presented the guest book following the ceremony.

For their wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a red wool suit with black patent accessories. The couple now is at home in Eugene at 292 W. 12th Ave.

Boring-Anderson

MRS. RONALD BORING

(Peterson photo)

Miss Stephanie Louise Anderson carried white orchids and roses arranged on a white Bible belonging to a friend in Hawaii when she was married to Ronald L. Boring. The wedding took place Oct. 13 in St. Mary's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Steen White-side officiating.

Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Anderson and Mr. Boring is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boring, Eugene.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie fashioned with a bell skirt. The bodice was made with three-quarter-length sleeves and a single bow above the waistline. Her veil was held by a crown of flowers.

Miss Patricia Boring was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Janet Harsh and Miss Phoebe Anderson. All wore sheath gowns of gold taffeta with overskirts of beige lace and carried gold chrysanthemums.

Gerald Davis was best man and ushers were Richard Anderson and Gary Boring.

A reception was held at the Anderson home following the ceremony. Mrs. Douglas Anderson and Mrs. Perry Wade, grandmothers of the bride, served cake and coffee. Mrs. Mike Birch served punch. Miss Joann Norbeck presented the guest book.

For their wedding trip to Seattle and the World's Fair the bride wore a brown and rust ensemble. The couple now is at home in Eugene at 891 Taylor St.

MR. AND MRS. NOEL J. LITTLE

(Dwayne photo)

Little-McPherson

Miss Lorane McPherson wore a floor-length bridal gown of lace and tulle in red-tinge style over a ruffled skirt of tulle when she was married to Noel J. Little, Oct. 14, in First Christian Church. The Rev. Carroll C. Roberts, retired pastor, officiated.

Miss McPherson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loran A. McPherson and Mr. Little is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zonie K. Little.

The bride's gown was touched with iridescent sequins at the neckline. Her veil was held by a tiara of rhinestones and she carried a cascade of stephanotis and lavender roses surrounding a white orchid.

Miss Patsy Bruntz was maid of honor and other attendants were Miss Sandra Helvey and Mrs. Rex Vaughan. All wore sheath dresses of lavender taffeta with overskirts of nylon organza and carried cascade arrangements of white and lavender daisies.

Gayle Hansen was best man and ushers were Gary Landers and Rex Vaughan.

A reception was held in the church parlor, where Mrs. Roger Griffin, the bride's aunt, and Mrs. Eldon Brotherton cut the cake. Mrs. Frank Cooper of Tacoma, Wash., another aunt, poured coffee and Mrs. Delbert Brotherton served punch.

The couple will be at home in Eugene.