NEW EUGENE BRANCH OF THE OREGON BANK
Construction of $200,000 Building to Start Thursday

A. L. Jacobson Elected Homebuilders Assn. Head

A. L. Jacobson, 40, a partner in Lindberg Homes of Eugene, has been elected president of the Homebuilders Assn. of Eugene-Springfield. It was announced Monday night.

Jacobson's term of office will run for one year, starting Jan. 1. He will succeed Kenneth Gilbert, who presently is on a three-week tour of Central American countries.

Other newly elected officers announced at Monday night's annual general membership meeting are Don Furtick, vice president; John Vogel, secretary; and Ron Alford, treasurer.

Newly elected to the board of directors are James Carroll, Fred Jaeger and Bernard Hiatt. Jacobson and his wife, Sadie, and their children, Judy, 17, and Jim, 15, reside at 3121 Emerald St., Eugene.

Also under discussion Monday night was the first annual Homebuilders' Home Show to be presented March 7-10 at the Lane County Fairgrounds. Harmon O'Loughlin Enterprises of Portland have been retained by the association to arrange for the show, expected to feature entertainment by leading radio and television personalities.

Trading was heavy toward the end and the ticker tape ran late. The business news background continued fairly good but traders had plenty of short-term profits to cash.
