

Golden Pair The Rev. and Mrs. Albert E. Coe were greeted by their hosts of friends at a golden wedding reception in Mapleton Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Albert E. Coes Feted On Golden Wedding Day

The Rev. and Mrs. Albert E. Coe of Mapleton were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception in Mapleton Evangelical United Brethren Church, Mapleton Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was hostess group, assisted by the Rev. and Mrs. Allen H. Backer and official members of the church.

Miss Mary Welsh, granddaughter of the honored couple, was in charge of the guest book, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Anderson. Nearly 200 relatives and friends attended the event. Relatives present were a nephew, Edwin Coe and his wife, from North Surrey, B.C., and two of his sisters, Mrs. Charles Daniels, of Ashcroft, B.C., and Mrs. Doris Nicholson, of Vancouver, B.C., another nephew, Allen Coe and his wife, Seattle; son-in-law Paul Welsh, and children, Mary, James and William.

The social room of the church was decorated with floral gifts to the couple. The tiered wedding cake, topped with white satin bells, edged with seed pearls was decorated by Mrs. Gladys Cessun, of Mapleton. Boy Scout Troop 64 acted as ushers and guides at the church all afternoon and sent one Patrol in full uniform to present the formal salute and tribute. Cub Scouts, Pack 64, also marched by, giving their tribal grip. Messages and plants were received from the many community, church and fraternal groups in which the Coes are active.

A "Pot of Gold" came from the foot of the rainbow, containing a shower of gifts from many friends of Mapleton, Brickerville, Florence, North Bend, Reedsport, and Waldport. Another shower came from the last parish served by the Coes, at Dysart, Iowa. After the reception, a group of the Iowa parishioners gathered around a telephone to talk long-distance with the Coes.

Corn Syrup Used In Candy Recipes

Corn syrup (both light and dark) is used so much in candy recipes because it helps to prevent the formation of large sugar crystals and thereby to produce smooth texture.

Dear Willie

Published in the interest of good eating by the TIMBER TOPPERS

DEAR WILLIE—Every year, Harold (my husband) plays Santa Claus for the children at our church. He is so hearty and jolly looking and is such a perfect Santa the children look forward to his appearance from year to year. This year, however, Harold won't be able to be at the party. I feel obligated to find a substitute Santa—one as merry and as well-fed looking as my husband. Please, Willie, where shall I start looking?

MRS. S. CLAUS

DEAR MRS. CLAUS—Simply stop by Willie's Timber Topper at luncheon and dinner hours. There you will see hearty, well-fed gentlemen... Selecting one should be no problem.
