Lordly Lady Hoofs and Sings With Gusto

Bette Davis: She's Alive and Kicking

By RICK DU BROW
Of the United Press International
HOLLYWOOD — What ever happened to Bette Davis?

Jane?" and now you can hardly turn on a television set without tripping over her. She visited the Jack Paar show.

It paid off when the film incredibly recouped its negative cost in its first week of release. But Thursday night took a different sort of guts, and she came well-supplied. Known primarily as a dramatic star, she showed the kids what confidence and poise are all about.

Garland for a number of musical specials next season; she's supposedly asking $5 million a year for a series. The trend to longer shows: On the heels of NBC-TV's 90-minute "The Virginian," ABC-TV is reported to have bought another 90-minute series, "Arrest and Trial," starring Chuck Connors and Ben Gazzara; the format is a criminal hunt for the first 45 minutes and a trial the last 45.

Statewide TV Board Urged By Committee

SALEM — The legislative fiscal committee recommended this week that the 1963 legislature try to ease the confusion on the availability of funds for educational television to higher education and to primary and secondary education.

Part of the reason for her sudden burst into the medium is, of course, the success of the movie. But part of it may also stem from an advertisement she placed in the Hollywood trade press some while back, before public approval of the film was assured.

She sang folk songs with Williams and the New Christy Minstrels, and she hoofed to a square dance and also to a Broadway-style number with eight chorus boys. She is a hot property in this area, fellas.

The committee also recommended the establishment of a statewide television council with the authority to coordinate educational television facilities.

It was a full-page ad, termed "situation wanted," and said: "Mother of three—10, 11 and 15—divorcee. American, 30 years' experience as an actress in motion pictures. Mobile still and more affable than rumor would have it. Wants steady employment in Hollywood. Has had Broadway, Bette Davis... references upon request."

The Channel Swim: NBC-TV's "The Eleventh Hour" is reported renewed for the remainder of the season. "Wild Kingdom," a new half-hour Sunday series about wildlife and primitive areas, debuts on NBC-TV Jan. 6 with Marlin Perkins as host.

The education television system of the state now is under the state Board of Higher Education. Some criticism has arisen that primary and secondary education has not had enough of the program time.

On the Paar show, Miss Davis was hampered by laryngitis, but found time to make what she apparently thought was a devastatingly funny remark about newspapers, though, of course, she had chosen them as the place to ask for work.

ABCTV and NBC-TV are understood to be seeking Judy

The fiscal committee report was presented to a pre-session conference of Oregon legislators reviewing the state's financial picture.

Well, my old man once told me it wasn't polite to tell a lady when her slip was showing, so let us think, instead, in terms of gallantry a much nicer quality than pettiness. And thus we come to Thursday night, and the side of Miss Davis that I prefer to remember, that of a trouper.

The lordly lady of the movies had proven her trouper mettle in a different area not long ago when she barnstormed through theater after theater in New York to sell "Baby Jane," and

The committee said it found that during the past five years educational television has been almost exclusively applied to the college level.

"Oregon has emphasized college-level educational television," the committee report said. "The rest of the country, elementary and secondary educational television."

Beech-Nut Cooperative Council, a union representing workers of the Beech-Nut Life Savers Inc. plant here, filed a grievance when a custom of free coffee at break periods and lunch was discontinued by the company after 20 years. Vending machines were installed, offering coffee for a nickel.

An arbitrator, Dr. Morrison Hansaker of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., ruled free coffee must be provided because it was an established "condition of employment" and had been a factor in contract negotiations.

Television Previews

Bernstein to Define Forms of Melody

The second of four "Young People's Concert" this season, "What Is A Melody?" will be presented tonight at 7:30 on Channel 6 with Leonard Bernstein conducting.

Tonight Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic examine different forms that melody can take: Tune, theme, motive, melodic line or musical phrase.

The telecast, which will preempt "Rawhide," was taped in New York City's Lincoln Center.

Other Friday previews: 8:30 p.m., Route 66 (6) — Julie Newmar and Robert Webber are guests in "Give the Old Cat a Tender Mouse." Tod Stiles encounters a non-conformist motorcycle-riding young girl on the outskirts of Memphis and when it appears she is being followed, decides to investigate.

9 p.m., Age of Kings (7) — King Henry IV leads a march to battle against the treasonous members of the Percy clan in "The Road to Shrewsbury," Acts 3, 4 and 5 of "Henry IV, Part I."
