Newsmen to Interview Freshman Senators

A group of freshman senators and their families will receive attention today at 9:30 a.m. on a special news feature on Channel 6 entitled "Meet The New Senators."

Greeting the new senators at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel in Washington will be CBS correspondents. Those scheduled to appear in the hour-long program will be: Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn.; Birch Bayh Jr., D-Ind.; Daniel Brewster, D-Md.; George McGovern, D-S.D.; Thomas McIntyre, D-N.H.; Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii; Peter Dominick, R-Colo.; and Milward Simpson, R-Wyo.

"Washington Report" will be pre-empted today only.

Other Sunday previews: 11 a.m., AFL All-Star Game (9-12)—Balboa Stadium, San Diego, Calif., is the scene of the second annual American Football League All-Star Game.

1 p.m., NFL Pro Bowl (13-8)—The 13th annual NFL Bowl game, with Eastern and Western Division All Stars of the National Football League, will be telecast from the Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles.

8 p.m., Ed Sullivan (6)—Ed goes to Miami Beach to celebrate Sophie Tucker's 75th birthday. Miss Tucker sings two numbers. Robert Goulet and Brenda Lee also sing solos.

10 p.m., DuPont Show (13)—Eddie Albert and Glynnis Johns co-star as a couple who discover an antique worth a fortune in a junk shop. At first they are elated by the find but when the shock wears off they wonder what to do with it.

10 p.m., Voice of Firestone (12)—Musical comedy star Martha Wright, Robert Merrill and Anna Moffo of the Metropolitan Opera are guest performers as they sing a number of Rodgers and Hammerstein tunes. Composer Richard Rodgers receives the Mary MacArthur Memorial Award for humanitarian services.

10:30 p.m., Howard K. Smith (9-12)—Sen. John Tower of Texas expresses his opposition to the opinions stated by Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas when he appeared on Smith's show Dec. 30.

Monday (daytime): 9:30 a.m., JFK Speech (13-8)

Both Eugene channels will carry President Kennedy's State of the Union Message to the joint session of Congress live. 2 p.m., Inauguration (2-7)—The inauguration of Gov. Mark Hatfield will be carried live from the capitol grounds in Salem.

Movies

6 p.m. (9)—"Hold That Ghost." Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Joan Davis. Two cutups get involved with a dead gangster and a "haunted" house. (1941)—good.

7:30 p.m. (2)—"Touch And Go." Jack Hawkins, Margaret Johnson. Funny, sometimes hilarious British comedy of a family's decision to pull up stakes and move to Australia. Hawkins shines in the lead role. (1956)—good.

8 p.m. (9-12)—"Inherit The Wind." Spencer Tracy, Fredric March, Gene Kelly. Broadway play based on the famous Scopes trial of the 20s about a school-teacher's right to teach Darwin's theory of evolution. Spencer and March are very good as defender and prosecutor, respectively. Kelly is good as a newspaperman who is instrumental in focusing national attention to the court proceedings. (1960)—no rating available.

11 p.m. (13)—"The Rebel Set." Gregg Palmer, Kathleen Crowley, Ned Glass. Operator of a Hollywood coffee house, in reality a crook, recruits three beatniks to assist in an armored bank car holdup in Chicago. (1959)—no rating available.

11 p.m. (8)—"The Damned Don't Cry." Joan Crawford, David Brian, Steve Cochran. Miss Crawford finds herself up to her neck in crime and corruption. (1950)—fair.

11 p.m. (12)—"Rangers of Fortune." Fred MacMurray, Albert Dekker. Off-beat western defies convention, but is a very confusing film. Story of three renegades who help an old man and a young girl. (1940)—fair.

11:15 p.m. (9)—"Relentless." Robert Young, Marguerite Chapman, Akim Tamiroff. A cowboy is accused of murder and, after escaping, sets out to clear his name. Well-made western holds interest throughout. (1948)—good.
