

Wedding Book

Lee Freeman, Michael Fury Wedded

MRS. MICHAEL FURY

(Fehly Studio photo)

Miss Lee Jane Freeman wore a wedding gown of white satin brocade accented with satin and fashioned in street length when she was married Dec. 29 to Michael George Fury. The double-ring ceremony took place at 2 p.m. in Central Presbyterian Church, the Rev. George R. Ashwood officiating.

Miss Freeman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Freeman and Mr. Fury is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick G. Fury. Both families are of Eugene.

With her wedding gown Miss Freeman wore a circular veil held by a band of white satin. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Lisa Bardeen, her maid of honor, wore a street-length dress of blue silk with a full pleated skirt. She wore a matching veil and carried white daisy chrysanthemums.

Robert Seeley of Olympia, Wash., was best man. Ushers were Benny Smith and Wayne Smith. White chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

A reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Milo Marlatt cut the cake. Mrs. Manuel Warfel poured coffee, and Mrs. Donald Tracey served punch. Miss Molly Fury, sister of the bridegroom, presented the guest book.

For their wedding trip to the coast the bride wore a beige wool dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple now is at home in Eugene at 45 West 24th Pl. Mr. Fury is employed by Snellstrom Lumber Co.

Attending the wedding from out of the state were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seeley and family of Olympia and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meyer of Dyer, Nev., uncle and aunt of the bride.

MRS. MICHAEL MOON

(Moderns photo)

Couple Now at Home in Salem

Carrying for sentiment her late grandmother Edmiston's handkerchief, Miss Marie Ann Edmiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edmiston of Elmira, was married to Michael V. Moon Dec. 29 in St. Catherine of Sienna Catholic Church at Veneta. The Rev. Lowell P. Blackburn of Junction City officiated. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Moon of Salem.

Poinsettias decorated the altar of the church. Mrs. Ralph Rogers was soloist.

The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of taffeta combined with lace in its empire-styled bodice, which had three-quarter-length sleeves and sweetheart neckline. The taffeta skirt had a Watteau panel of lace at back, with taffeta bow trim at the waistline. She wore a float-length veil of illusion held by a floral cluster of flowers and pearls, and carried a nosegay of red roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Christine Brandt, bride's cousin, in a ballerina frock of mint green taffeta with bateau neckline and short sleeves, the skirt trimmed with double tucks and tailored bows. Similarly dressed were the bridesmaids, Miss Caroline Edmiston, bride's sister, and Miss Shannon Moon, groom's sister. All carried bouquets of red roses and white carnations.

John Jarvis of Salem was best man and ushers were Fred Jeter and James Waltz, both of Salem.

The reception after the ceremony took place in Elmira Grange Hall, where Mrs. Irene Hodges of Salem, bridegroom's grandmother, cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. George Beringer, of Pendleton. Miss Dorothy Mitchell, Miss Donna Vachter and Miss Shirley Cole, all of Salem, poured punch and coffee and cared for gifts. Miss Pearl Brandt of Eugene had the guest book.

The couple made a trip to Seaside, Mrs. Moon wearing a doubleknit ensemble of two-tone gray with black accessories. They will be at home in Salem, where the groom is a student at Merritt Davis School of Commerce and the bride is employed as a secretary for State Industrial Accident Commission.

OSU Couple Recently Wed

Miss Mary Ann Hought, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rodin of Monroe, and John Douglas Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Mills, also of Monroe, were married recently in Faith Lutheran Church at Junction City. The Rev. Arnold Knudsen performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of brocade satin fashioned with a long-sleeved lace bodice. She wore a shoulder-length veil held by a "wedding cake" headdress and carried white roses and carnations on a lace-covered Bible. She was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Hought. Miss Linda Lemon of Monroe, maid of honor, wore a gown of royal blue satin with lace overblouse and carried white chrysanthemums. Ellen Kay and Elaine Crowson, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Joe Mills was best man. Ushers were James Hubbard and Larry Nye. Miss Karen Scobel was soloist.

A reception was held in the church parlor, where Mrs. Gilbert Fox acted as hostess. Mrs. Orelle Fagerland and Mrs. Larry Fagerland, aunts of the bride, poured coffee. Mrs. Gene Gullede cut the cake and Mrs. Jerry Ballard served. Miss Dorothy Prouty and Miss Robin McCormack took care of gifts and Miss Linda Fagerland presented the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the couple now is at home in Corvallis.

Eugene Girl Bride in East

A ceremony performed Dec. 22 in Ellenville, N. Y., wedded Miss Susan Dianne Mitchell, tree daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Mitchell of Eugene, and Louis Charles Fredd Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fredd of Kerhonkson, N. Y. The ceremony took place at 2 p.m. in St. John's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Ronald Smith officiating.

Miss Mitchell, who was given in marriage by the bridegroom's father in absence of her parents, wore a sheath dress of shantung silk in peacock blue shade. She wore a brief white veil and carried white poinsettias and holly.

Mrs. Barbara Ross of Accord, N. Y., sister of the groom, was matron of honor, in a blue wool dress and a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses. Edgar Marshall was best man.

The couple will travel to Oregon to make their home in Portland where Mr. Fredd, who is a graduate of Cornell University, is a biologist for Oregon Fish Commission. They will visit in Eugene with Mrs. Fredd's parents en route.

MRS. AMEL ANDERSON

(Alex Ziel photo)

Anderson-Fawver

Baskets of pink carnations and white stock and candelabra holding pink candles decorated the altar of Elmira Church of Christ for the Dec. 28 marriage of Miss Lois Fawver to Amel Anderson. The Rev. James Caultley of Santa Clara performed the double-ring ceremony at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawver of Veneta. Mr. Anderson is the son of Mrs. Inez Sloan of Salem and the late Lawrence Anderson.

Miss Fawver wore a floor-length gown of white brocade satin fashioned with seed pearl embroidery on the long-sleeved bodice. Her veil was held by a small crown of seed pearls and she carried gardenias and pink roses.

Mrs. George Kotlarek of Eugene was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of blue net over taffeta. Miss Doris Renzema of Fairfield, Calif., bridesmaid, wore a princess style gown of pink net over taffeta. Both carried nosegays of white carnations. Susan Fawver and Melvin Fawver, niece and nephew of the bride, lighted the candles.

Otis Anderson of Salem was best man for his brother. Ushers were Courtland Fawver of Portland and Donald Fawver of Eugene, brothers of the bride, and George Kotlarek. Mrs. Clifford Poole played the organ music and Lowell Chase was vocalist.

A reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Verne Laswell and Mrs. Otis Anderson cut the cake. Mrs. Kenneth O'Neil and Mrs. Lawrence Anderson served coffee and punch. Mrs. Ralph Wilson Jr. of Ridgecrest, Calif., and Mrs. Donald Fawver took care of gifts. Miss Timi Swanson presented the guest book. Miss Eida Lowman and Mrs. Novella Hargan assisted with the reception.

For their wedding trip to the coast and northern California the bride wore a blue and white knit suit trimmed with white accessories.

The couple now is at home in Eugene. Mrs. Anderson teaches at Goshen Grade School and Mr. Anderson is in business at Oakridge.

Mrs. Bowman Wed at Coast

At home in North Bend on Coos Bay are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lapping, who were married Dec. 29 in First Methodist Church at Coos Bay, the Rev. Austin Richardson, pastor, officiating. The bride is the former Mrs. Katherine Bowman, formerly of Eugene. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rogge, formerly of Lane County, now living in Phoenix, Ariz. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Lapping.

The bride wore a gray knit suit in jacquard weave with black accessories. A three-strand pearl necklace was her only jewelry. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vosburgh attended the couple. Family members and a few close friends attended.

The bride, a former employe of the Eugene Register-Guard, is with the advertising department of The World. Her husband, who is in the shipping department of the Weyerhaeuser Co., is active in the Four-H program with horses and is vice president of Rainbow Riders, riding group.

MR., MRS. HAROLD WINFIELD

Winfield-Powell

The marriage of Miss Marlene Powell and Harold Winfield took place Dec. 26 in Ashland Church of Christ. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Mr. James Sinclair. Miss Powell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verlon Powell of Ashland and Mr. Winfield is the son of Robert Winfield of Bly. Miss Powell has been living in Eugene where she taught at Santa Clara School.

The bride wore a full-length gown of lace embroidered at the neckline with iridescent sequins. The full skirt was caught up at the hemline with a lace Dior rose. Her float veil of silk illusion was held by a pearlized floral crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and also wore a pink cameo brooch, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Glen Munsell of Salem, matron of honor, and Mrs. Clyde Olson of Ashland attended the bride. They wore sheath dresses of red satin brocade with matching veiled pillbox hats, and carried white muffs trimmed with red carnations.

Kim Stanton of Chico, Calif., was best man and ushers were Glen Munsell and Tom Hamilton. Howard Wood was vocal soloist.

At the reception in the church parlor, Mrs. John Stoneburg cut the cake and Mrs. Lindon Powell served punch. Mrs. Marvin Powell had the guest book.

The couple made a wedding trip to Reno and now is at home in Roseburg where Mr. Winfield teaches in the junior high school.

Reno Chapel Wedding Scene

Miss Janice Burdick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alden V. Burdick, and James Hepner, son of Mrs. Henry Hepner and the late Mr. Hepner, were married Dec. 23 in Park Wedding Chapel at Reno. The Rev. William H. Herring, Presbyterian minister, performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

Miss Burdick wore a beige knit suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. The couple was unattended.

The couple now is at home in Eugene at 730 Vincent St. Mr. Hepner is employed by Pacific Telephone Northwest and Mrs. Hepner by Al Clements Lumber Co.

Miss Wilkes Says Vows

Blue and white flowers and candles decorated the altar of Berean Baptist Church for the marriage of Miss Nina Wilkes and Melvin Dean Armstrong Dec. 31. The Rev. Lowell Humphries officiated.

Miss Wilkes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. Wilkes of Drain and Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong of Arcadia, Neb., who traveled to Eugene for the wedding.

The bride wore a street-length gown of white brocade taffeta, fashioned with long sleeves. Her bouffant veil of illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls. She carried blue and white carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Bhuri Hamilton, matron of honor, wore a navy blue shantung sheath dress with beige accessories and carried carnations.

Bhuri Hamilton was best man. Miss Marcia Callis was vocalist and Miss Phyllis Knight was organist.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. Assisting Mrs. Hamilton with serving were Mrs. Mary Richart and Mrs. Marie Stubblefield of Mountain Home, Idaho. Mrs. Robert Hedgers took care of gifts.

The couple now is at home in Eugene at 170 E. 12th Ave. Mr. Armstrong is a senior at Northwest Christian College.

Denning-Alsup

A century-old sixpence was the token worn by Miss Lavern Alsup with her bridal attire, when she was married to Arthur Eugene Denning Dec. 22 in Harlow Chapel of First Baptist Church in Eugene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Alsup of Drain, the bridegroom is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Gene Denning of Cave Junction. The bridegroom's father officiated.

Miss Alsup wore a floor-length gown of satin with basque bodice and full skirt. Appliques of lace trimmed both bodice and skirt, and were touched with sequins. A large bow ornamented the back of the dress, which had a chapel-length train. Her two-tiered veil of illusion was held by a crown of pearls and sequins, and she carried red roses.

Miss Dorothy Alsup was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a dress of emerald green with bell-shaped skirt and a self-material rose at the waistline. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. The other bridal attendants, Miss Elizabeth Denning of Cave Junction, Miss Patricia Roblyer and Mrs. Donald Dealy of Eugene, had dresses and flowers like the honor maid's.

David Denning, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Woody Crocker, Kenneth McClain and Robert Martin.

At the reception in the Rhoda McNutt Room, Miss Doris Butler cut the cake, Mrs. Leon Loyd served coffee and Miss Phyllis Lance cut the cake. Mrs. Robert Cook presented the guest book.

Following a trip to Vancouver and Victoria in Canada, the couple now is at home in Eugene. The bridegroom is a teacher at Thomas Jefferson Junior High School, the bride is a nurse at Sacred Heart Hospital.

Kennell-Ellis photo)

MRS. ARTHUR DENNING