Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Stafford will greet friends Saturday at a reception marking their golden wedding anniversary. Hours will be 2 to 4 p.m. at the Eugene Elks Club, 2727 Centennial Blvd., when friends and relatives are invited to call. The couple asks that there be no gifts.

Sharing host honors for the occasion will be two of the couple's three children and members of their families:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stafford of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Cloninger (Geneva) of Longview, Wash. Another son, Richard Stafford and his family of Minneapolis, Minn., will come to Oregon this summer for a family reunion. The Staffords have 10 grandchildren.

Lloyd Edgar Stafford and Margaret P. Rhodes were married March 5, 1913, at the home of her parents, 1458 Alder St. in Eugene. Mrs. Stafford was born in 1889 in Manderson, Nebr., and came to Eugene in 1903.

Mr. Stafford, also born in 1889, at Mohawk, is the son of James Stafford who came to Lane County in 1852 and Sarah Hardman who came here in 1850, both as youngsters. The Hardman and the Stafford families made the trek in wagon trains which originated at St. Joseph, Mo. Their homes were in Indiana. James Stafford was the first representative to the Oregon legislature from Lane County.

A year before the marriage of the Lloyd Staffords, Mr. Stafford moved from Mohawk to the home where the couple still resides, 1 1/2 miles east of Goshen on the Coast Fork of the Willamette. Until recent years when he semi-retired he was engaged in raising hops, walnuts, sheep and beans. Their son, Robert Stafford, now runs the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford share hunting as a hobby and go each year to Eastern Oregon for elk. Mr. Stafford, an ardent fisherman, chose as his 73rd birthday present a deep-sea trip in a charter boat and came home with his limit of salmon. Mrs. Stafford is active in home extension work.

Wallings Mark 25th Anniversary

Open house honoring Mr. and Mrs. David Walling of 450 Figueroa St. will be held Sunday from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. at their home. The event has been planned by sons of the couple, Gerry and Roger Walling. Friends are invited to call.

Mr. and Mrs. Walling were married in Boise, and came to Eugene soon afterward to make their home.

'Dear Abby'

—Abigail Van Buren—

DEAR ABBY: We have a big gray angora cat who has used up her nine lives. We dumped her out in the country about seven times and each time we took her about ten miles from home, but she always found her way home again. Would anybody like to have our cat?

VICKIE IN COLDWATER

DEAR VICKIE: Don't you know that it is cruel to "dump" a cat out in the country? It could die of starvation or exposure. Tell your Daddy to call the Animal Shelter if you can't find a friend or neighbor who wants a big gray angora cat which has used up all its lives.

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with a widow for a year. I am 55, have never been married and do not particularly care for children, and she has three. They are average teen-agers who get on my nerves when I'm around them for over an hour. This woman puts her children first and I'm afraid if I marry her she would soon have me playing second fiddle to her children. I love her but I don't like her set-up. Also, the expense of a ready-made family frightens me. Any advice?

FRICTIONED

DEAR FRICTIONED: Yes, plenty. Find yourself a childless woman or one who is "unbearable." Or one with grown children who would be no expense to you. You might "love" this woman, but your letter reveals a man who would say "I do" and then wonder why he did.

DEAR ABBY: Twelve years ago I divorced my husband (his name was JONES) and I had a son whom I shall call JOE Jones. He is now 19. Ten years ago I married a man whom I shall call MR. SMITH. My son remained JOE JONES because him. Fine. When my son's friends come to the house they call his real father wouldn't permit my second husband to adopt me "MRS. JONES." I don't bother to correct them because, after all, my son's name is JOE JONES, so it is a natural mistake. But when my husband is home and they call him "MR. JONES" he does a slow burn. Should I correct them on the spot while my husband is fuming with anger? Or should I let it go and let him fume?

MRS. SMITH

DEAR MRS. SMITH: Tell your son (privately) to advise his friends that MR. SMITH is your husband, and that you are MRS. SMITH. And that although MR. JONES is his father's name, MR. JONES doesn't live there any more.

Stop worrying. Write to Abby. For a personal reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
