

Friends of Museum Journey to Court of Moghuls

Nepal Painting

Mrs. Lilly Jacob of Kotayam, India, wife of University of Oregon graduate student, and Meenakshi Varma, Hindu student from Jaipur, India, study 19th Century painting on cloth from Nepal of six-armed Avalokitesvara. The painting, a Buddhist tanka (banner) is from collection of Professor and Mrs. Thomas Ballinger and was among art works on display at annual Friends of the Museum dinner Tuesday evening.

Officers, Members Chosen For Board of Governors

Mrs. E. Charles Pressman was re-elected chairman of the Board of Governors of Friends of the Museum at the fifth annual dinner meeting Tuesday at Erb Memorial Union Bldg.

Robert Wilmsen was named vice chairman; Richard Williams, treasurer; Mrs. Paul R. Walsh, secretary.

New members of the Board of Governors are: Wayne Atwood, Ralph Cobb, Mrs. Lloyd Cummings, Mrs. R. A. Kronenberg, Mrs. Roy Lieualten, Mrs. Keith McGilvray, Kenneth H. O'Neil, Mrs. Gordon Thomas, Hale Thompson, William W. Wilson, all of Eugene; Mrs. Dale Hansen, Coos Bay; Mrs. George Lenci and Mrs. Fred Sohn, Roseburg; Mrs. Harold F. Wendel, Portland; David Duniway, Salem.

Continuing members are Lester E. Anderson, Wallace S. Baldinger, Mark Clarke, Ehrman Giustina, Walter Creece, Mrs. Henry Hall, James Longwood, Mrs. Josephine Moore, Mrs. Nicholas Sullivan and Warren Wooton, Eugene; Mrs. Henry L. Corbett Jr., Portland; Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, Medford; Mrs. Donald McCargar, Salem.

Nearly 350 members of the "Friends" and their guests gathered in the candlelit Erb ballroom for the "Feast of the Moghuls" which featured a menu of authentic Indian dishes. Seven University of Oregon students from the Far East, dressed in their native costumes of India, greeted the guests.

The internationally known dancers from India, Sujata and Asoka, presented a colorful program portraying the art of dance in India through the centuries. Dinner guests had an opportunity to meet the husband-and-wife at a reception which followed at the Museum of Art.

Russell Memorial

Mrs. E. Charles Pressman, chairman of board of governors of Friends of the Museum, and Robert Wilmsen, vice chairman, view "Dancing Gandharva," ancient Hindu carving, being purchased by the Friends as a memorial to the late William N. Russell, first chairman of Friends of the Museum which had its fifth annual dinner meeting Tuesday evening.

'Hand of Friendship' Teas Planned

Emerald Empire Chapter and Cascade Chapter of Eugene and Springfield will join other units of American Business Women's Association Sunday in playing host for their semi-annual "Hand of Friendship" teas.

The events are given to acquaint other business women of the area with ABWA, its aims and purposes. There are 21,000 members in more than 400 chapters throughout the United States.

Mrs. Jack Wallis is chairman for the Cascade Chapter tea to be given at her home, 2078 Westwood Lane. Hours will be from 3 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Gladys Sickels, chapter president, other officers and members of the chapter will be on hand to welcome guests.

Emerald Empire Chapter will give its tea at Woman's Club, 450 E. 14th Ave., from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Miss Ethel Nelson, Mrs. Ocyne Hines and Mrs. Evelyn Thorp have charge of the event. Mrs. Pearl Schantol is membership chairman and Mrs. Eugene T. Vaughn is chapter president.

Purpose of ABWA is to advance the interests of women in business by advancing employer-employee relations through understanding and continuing education of its members. Dinner meetings are held monthly with outstanding business and professional men and women as speakers.

Each of the Eugene chapters joins with the national program of providing a scholarship annually for a deserving girl, either graduating from high school and planning to obtain advanced education or already enrolled in an institution of higher learning and needing financial assistance. More than $40,000 in scholarships were granted last year by the various chapters.

National headquarters for the Association is located in Kansas City, Mo., where the first chapter was chartered in 1949. National convention will be held this year in Cleveland, Ohio.

Anyone wishing further information concerning ABWA is advised to call Mrs. Sickels, DI 5-7417, for Cascade Chapter; Mrs. Vaughn, DI 5-1420 or PA 6-6555, or Mrs. Schantol, RI 7-3551, for Emerald Empire Chapter.

Creating Interest

Craft fabrics create surface interest for spring, with soft mohairs, fluffy wools, lacy tweeds, ottomans, whipcords, dressy ribbed silks and silk-worsted blends. Checks and plaids of every size abound.

Ancient Art

Suresh Chandra Chaudhari, Hindu student at University of Oregon, from Chandausi, India, examines blackstone sculpture of god Krishna as lute-player from northern Bengal. Work from Ballinger collection was displayed at annual Friends of Museum dinner.

VFW Group Sets Session

District 13, Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars, will elect officers Saturday at Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Creswell. Potluck dinner at 6 p.m. will precede the business meeting. Mrs. Bernice Deurmyer, president of the district, will conduct the meeting.

Auxiliary presidents will report on activities. The new district president elect will not assume her duties until installation of officers at the department convention to be held in McMinnville June 22.

Friends Fete
