Solons to Study Fund Requests for 12 Projects

SALEM (AP) — A Joint Ways and Means subcommittee decided Wednesday to limit consideration of the Board of Higher Education's building requests for the next two years to the first 12 items on the priority lists.

This would mean maximum building in 1963-66 would be $20.5 million compared to the board's requested $47 million and Gov. Mark O. Hatfield's proposed $21.5 million. Hatfield's requested building program did not contain the same projects as the board's priority list of the first 12.

U.S. Copter Defies Russian Protests

BERLIN (AP) — A U.S. Army helicopter flew over East Berlin Thursday in defiance of previous Soviet protests. After the flight, which an Army spokesman called routine, the Russians delivered an oral protest in the four-power Berlin Air Safety Center.

Falls by the fall of 1964. It would avoid splitting the school temporarily between two campuses.

The other appropriation is for $292,000, which would be added to $458,000 from the state restoration fund to replace Campbell Hall at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth.

Campbell Hall was critically damaged in the October wind-storm.

The decision to limit building during the next two years to the first 12 items would include these projects:

Central heating plant and boiler at the University of Oregon Medical School; alterations to the old library building at Oregon State University; physical education building at Portland State College; classroom, laboratory and office building at Southern Oregon; a classroom, laboratory and office building at Oregon College of Education; a science-math building at Eastern Oregon College; addition to the library building at the University of Oregon; the pharmacy building addition at Oregon State University; the second addition to the science building at Oregon; first addition to Cordley Hall at Oregon State University; physical education building at Southern Oregon, and the library building addition and alteration at Oregon College of Education.

Skipper Loses Five Crewmen

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Eight months ago the yacht Monsoon left San Diego with an all-American crew of six aboard.

When the 47-foot former salmon trawler sailed into Sydney Harbor Thursday, Skipper Kerb Hope, 31, a Los Angeles engineer, was the only American aboard. The other five had been replaced by an Australian, an Englishman and three New Zealanders.

"Tahiti was the worst," said Hope. "I lost three of my men there. The Pacific islands are so great I was tempted to jump ship myself."

Hope is on a three-year pleasure cruise.

Probe Starts On Ambush Of 'Squealer'

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago's police who had hoped they were "clean," searched the underworld and their own kind Thursday for the men who ambushed Morrison outside the Cook County Criminal Courts Building.

Roswell T. Spencer, chief investigator for the state's attorney's office and last year's Democratic candidate for sheriff, laid it on the line when he said:

"It's logical to assume there is a connection between the shooting and the scandal incident that Morrison broke."

That was when the dapper, youthful squealer reported illegal activities of eight policemen and turned the Chicago police department upside down.

"There are a lot of people who would like to see me dead," Morrison said.

Veteran investigators with orders to "bring the culprit to justice" said Morrison had made enemies in the underworld, where "squealing" is frowned upon. And they said there were probably ex-policemen—their careers blighted by his stories of burglars-in-blue—who would rather see Morrison dead than alive.

Police guarded Morrison's room in Cook County hospital where he underwent surgery on his arm. Morrison was gunned from a slow moving car late Wednesday as he and another informer, Jerry Bossuyt, walked away from the steps of the criminal courts building.

The shooting came less than two weeks before Chicago's mayoralty election and only three weeks after Alderman Benjamin F. Lewis, powerful West Side Negro politician, was handcuffed and killed in a gang-style "Chinese execution."

Bossuyt said he and Morrison, 26, had just returned from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where they had been celebrating Morrison's acquittal in a burglary trial earlier this month. A West Palm Beach jury acquitted Morrison of trying to crack a drugstore safe.

Bossuyt said he and Morrison, who had testified in an insurance burglary trial here, were walking west on 26th Street to Morrison's car when he heard a shot.

"I ducked into a squat," he said. "Then I heard another shot and Dick yelled, 'Help, Help me! I've been shot!'"

Bossuyt said he was sure the gunmen were aiming at Morrison and not at him.

Morrison touched off the scandal that rocked the Chicago police department and Mayor Richard J. Daley's administration in January, 1960.

Arrested on burglary charges, he told investigators that eight policemen helped him "case" prospective burglary sites, stood by in squad cars while he looted stores and businesses, and then helped him cart away loot ranging from cigarette lighters and television sets to outdoor motors.

Secret squads of police arrested the policemen on Jan. 14, 1962, and rounded up four carloads of loot.
