

Beginning With Palm Sunday

Churches List Holy Week Observances

Holy Week will begin Sunday at Emerald Empire churches on a triumphal note with the observance of Palm Sunday.

On Monday, the solemn nature of Holy Week will again be in effect. In some liturgical groups, Wednesday is known as "Spy Wednesday," and Thursday is generally observed as Maundy Thursday, the observance of the institution of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion.

Friday is Good Friday, with churches scheduling solemn meditation services at the traditional noon hour or in the evening.

A number of Roman Catholic churches in the Emerald Empire have scheduled Easter Vigil services Saturday evening, beginning at various times.

Early risers will have a variety of Easter sunrise services to choose from this year in the Emerald Empire, and almost all Protestant churches in the Emerald Empire have special programs scheduled for worship services on Easter Sunday, April 14.

Holy Week services this year will include a number of special or unusual services.

St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, 1465 Coburg Rd., Eugene, will turn to a service more than 400 years old for its observance of Maundy Thursday at 8 p.m.

The service will be from the Prayer Book of 1549. The Rev. Edgar Tainton said he scheduled the service to "emphasize the continuity of the prayer book" as used by the Episcopal Church.

Easter pageants scheduled Sunday include a program by the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Rt. 4 Box 358-A, (McBeth Road), Eugene.

Youngsters from the Sunday school at Willakenzie Evangelical United Brethren Church, 260 Willakenzie Rd., Eugene, will present a passion pageant Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

And at Leaburg, an Easter pageant, "From Triumph to Triumph," is scheduled Sunday at 7 p.m. at McKenzie Baptist Church.

Confirmation will be at 11 a.m. Sunday at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Florence, and Sunday at 10:30 a.m. at Christ Lutheran Church, West 11th Avenue and Territorial Road in Veneta. Twenty-one young people will be confirmed at 11 a.m. Sunday at Grace Lutheran Church, 710 E. 17th Ave., Eugene.

First Christian Church, 1186 Oak St., Eugene, will have a baptismal service Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

And at Mapleton, the Mapleton Community Evangelical United Brethren Church has scheduled a 7 p.m. showing of 12 oil paintings by Mrs. P. P. Petticoat depicting the life of Christ.

Three morning Masses are scheduled for Spy Wednesday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Eugene. These masses will be at 6:30, 7:15 and 8:10 a.m. Confessions will be heard Wednesday from 3-5 p.m., and again, after Wednesday's Lenten mass at 5:30 p.m.

Asbury Methodist Church, 1090 Bernsten Rd., Eugene, will have a Lenten service Wednesday at 7 a.m.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 166 E. 13th Ave., Eugene, has scheduled Holy Communion Monday and Tuesday at 7:15 a.m. and Wednesday at 7:15 and 10 a.m. In addition, the church will have a service of lessons and carols Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Holy Baptism is being scheduled at the church next Saturday from 4 to 5 p.m., by appointment.

Methodists' 'Silent Meal' On Thursday

A "Meal in Silence," followed by communion and a choir cantata, is planned Thursday at First Methodist Church, 1185 Willamette St., Eugene.

The unusual service will begin with an explanation of the program at the church at 6 p.m.

Then, explained the Rev. Norman Conard, senior pastor of the church, "we will go to the dining room in complete silence."

The meal, he said, will include foods such as might have been served at the first Maundy Thursday—when Jesus observed the passover in the "Upper Room" with his disciples. Conard said the meal will include lamb, rice, unleavened bread, spinach (as symbolic of herbs), dates and other fruits.

And while still in the dining room, members will read the Methodist communion ritual and certain scriptural passages. Silence will be maintained as the dinner guests go to the church sanctuary. And at various points in the church, the minister said, there will be "stations of the cross," or locations marking the seven words from the cross, where worshippers may meditate if they wish.

In the sanctuary, those at the dinner will join with other worshippers for a regular communion service, followed by a cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois.

Reservations for the dinner, which will cost 65 cents per person, are due Tuesday at the church. The reservations may be made by calling the church office, DI 5-8764.

3 Churches Will Hold Ancient Rite

Three Eugene churches—Peace and Westminster Presbyterian and St. Thomas' Episcopal—have scheduled an ancient church service, Tenebrae, for Maundy Thursday.

The service features the gradual extinguishing of the church lights or candles.

The Rev. John Ewing, pastor of Peace Presbyterian, introduced the service to Eugene area Presbyterians several years ago, and has scheduled it as a pre-Easter service at his church since that date.

For several years, the service has been part of the Holy Week calendar at St. Thomas'.

At Peace, 3080 River Rd., the service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Westminster Presbyterian, 777 Coburg Rd., Eugene, will combine the service with communion, baptism and reception of new members Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

St. Thomas' service will begin at 8 p.m., and there, it will include installation of new acolytes and songs by the church's Junior Choir.

All three services are open to the public.

Extra Room

Groundbreaking ceremonies will be Sunday at 10:30 a.m. for a multi-purpose room addition to Messiah Lutheran Church, 3280 River Road, Eugene. The 2,800 square-foot building will be constructed adjacent to the church's present parish hall, which will be partially remodeled. When the new structure is completed, Messiah Church will have the multi-purpose building, shown at far left, the parish hall, center, and the chapel, at right. Members of the congregation hope to complete construction of the $22,000 unit by September.
