Olga Freeman

Demos Ask Job
For Ex-ClerkBy SAM FREAR
Of the Register-Guard

A delegation of six Democrats called on the Lane County Commissioners Friday to present a request by the party that Clerk Olga Freeman be given a county job "commensurate with her ability, experience and training."

Due to developments since Tuesday, the party request was less exacting than one recently presented to commissioners by six Democrats in the Legislature. They had wanted Mrs. Freeman appointed head of the new Dept. of Records and Elections.

But since another Democrat, present treasurer Ina Randolph, is going to get that job, no specific post for Mrs. Freeman was recommended by the party. Commissioners acknowledged they are aware of Mrs. Freeman's "ability, capability and background, and we will take that into consideration in finding a job for her." But, Commissioner Kenneth Nielsen said "we just haven't found one for her yet."

The Democratic Central Committee's position was presented to commissioners by Chairman George Balsiger.

He went into detail explaining activities in the weeks preceding the commissioner's announcement Tuesday that Mrs. Randolph would head Records and Elections, and Eugene accountant James Schneider would head Finance and Auditing.

These two departments were created according to the home rule charter.

Commissioners on Tuesday announced they would "continue to look" for a job for Mrs. Freeman.

Friday they told Balsiger and his delegation that they don't want to "create" a job for Mrs. Freeman, and the Democrats replied that they also do not want this to happen.

Discussion at the meeting went on for about an hour, ranging from Balsiger's explanation of what the party understood about Mrs. Freeman's future (he claims, and commissioners deny, that Commissioner Frank Elliott promised that Mrs. Freeman would head Records and Elections.) to details of the party's position on the new home rule charter.

Basically, Balsiger said, "We regard it as something less than perfect" but said that no action will be taken toward consideration of amending the charter until all reorganization of county government is complete.

In the end commissioners came no closer to making promises about a job for Mrs. Freeman.

Nielsen said, however, that the county is not morally obligated to find a job for her. He said Mrs. Freeman's job, with the county officially expired on Jan. 3 and that she has been working on a temporary appointment since that time, with the appointment to end on May 1.

Canned Tuna
Has Threat
Of Botulism

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Grocers and housewives have been alerted to a new botulism threat, this time in canned tuna prepared for the Jewish Passover season already under way.

The Food and Drug Administration in Washington announced Friday that some defective cans of tuna gave indications of being contaminated by the deadly Clostridium botulinum type E.

The cans in question were shipped to six metropolitan areas within the past two months, FDA officials said. They bear the stamped serial numbers WY2 and WY3, and the labels read, in part, "Dagim-white tuna-kosher for Passover—net wt. 7 oz."

The areas are New York, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, and Augusta, Ga.

The FDA said the tuna-kosher to meet Jewish dietary restrictions and doubly supervised for the Jewish Passover season to ensure that no leavened bread is contained in it—was packed by the Washington Packing Corp. of San Francisco.

That firm, shut down since March 22, also packed tuna which apparently led to the deaths from botulism of two Detroit women last month.

In California, state health officials Friday ordered removal from grocery shelves of all tuna—kosher or non-kosher—packed by the firm since it opened last December.

Type E botulism is a poison. Usually associated with fish taken from cold waters, the bacteria can become toxic if not cooked under specified temperatures and pressures.
