Ex-City Couple Missionaries

A former Eugene minister, the Rev. Mack P. Jones, and his wife, Marie, were appointed missionaries to Paraguay Tuesday by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, meeting in semi-annual session in Richmond, Va.

For several years prior to February, 1961, Jones was minister of the First Southern Baptist Church in Eugene. He was then called to the ministry at First Baptist Church in Klamath Falls, the largest church in the Baptist General

Convention of Oregon-Washington.

The couple was among 21 new missionaries appointed at the meeting, bringing the total overseas staff of the denomination to 1,687 persons including 17 missionary associates.

THERMAN KALDAHL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kaldahl of 760 N. Bertelsen Rd., Eugene, was one of some 100 Lutheran students from U. S. seminaries and colleges participating in the 14th annual Lutheran Student Seminar at Washington, D. C. Kaldahl, a Junior at Dana College in Blair, Neb., is a member of Bethesda Lutheran Church in Eugene. Sessions were held in the nation's capital Monday through Thursday to give the students an understanding of government programs and procedures.

CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S Fellowship groups of Greenwood Christian Church have planned two meetings this week. The morning group will meet Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Roach, 1888 E. St., Springfield. Women are to bring a sack lunch. The evening group's meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. M. Harriman, 850 Laurelhurst Dr., Eugene. All women are welcome.

A CELTIC CROSS, carved from myrtlewood, will be presented to the Wallerville Presbyterian Church Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service. The service will feature the final sermon in a Lenten series based on symbols contained in the Celtic cross.

Missionary Speaks Tuesday at Church

A Presbyterian missionary who has spent more than 30 years in the Orient will be in Eugene Tuesday for programs at Central United Presbyterian Church, 14th Avenue and Ferry Streets. The missionary is Florence L. Logan, who will be a guest of the Women's Assn. of the church at an invitational tea at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday. At 10 a.m., she will give an address, open to everyone at the church.

Miss Logan, a native of the Northwest and a graduate of the University of Washington in Seattle, entered missionary service in 1921 after study at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles and Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions first assigned her to China, where she served at Paoing, near Peking. World War II forced her to return to the United States in 1942, and she then served on the staff of Eastshore Community Church in Richmond, Wash.

Miss Logan returned to Paoing in 1947, where she continued evangelistic work, opened a hostel for refugee girls, started a child welfare center and conducted Bible classes.

In 1952, she was transferred to Formosa, serving there with the Church of Christ through the Canadian Presbyterian Church. Her work then centered in the Bible school and evangelistic work with Mandarin-speaking refugees from the Chinese mainland. She also worked with a village of Chinese aborigines.

Tuesday's program, the Presbyterian women emphasized, would be of special interest to many women's groups due to the recent study of many denominations on the theme, "On the Rim of East Asia." Taiwan, or Formosa, was one of the focal points of this study.

Youth Leader Will Speak At Dinner

The Salvation Army's western division youth leader, Brigadier David Moulton, will be guest speaker Monday at a Salvation Army Youth Worker's Recognition Dinner in Eugene.

Moulton, recently appointed to the youth post after serving as second-in-command of the Salvation Army's metropolitan division in New York, will be accompanied to Eugene Monday by Captain Jack Grable, Oregon youth director.

The dinner is scheduled for 6:45 p.m. at the Eugene Corps headquarters, 640 W. Seventh Ave., Eugene.

Moulton is the son of pioneer Army officers who served in Newfoundland. He has served as an Army officer for 33 years. In addition to his other duties, Moulton serves on the Territorial Candidates Board, which reviews all applicants for Salvation Army officership.

Pageant Set For Friday

A pageant, "Goforth of China," will be presented Friday at Lighthouse Temple, 1209 Olive St., Eugene, in connection with Bible Standard College's high school visitation program.

Performance time for the pageant, which is open to the public, will be at 7:45 p.m.

In the pageant, the story of Jonathan Goforth, a pioneer Presbyterian Mission in the Orient, is related. In the 19th Century, Goforth ministered for more than 50 years in China, Manchuria and Korea.

Robert Demster of Tujunga, Calif., will play the title role, and Camille Binns of Montego Bay, Jamaica, will portray Rosalyn, Goforth's wife.

Presentation of the pageant will climax the visitation day program, which is expected to draw some 125 high school youths from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California.

BSC students and the college's high school guests will have a banquet Friday at 5 p.m. at First Christian Church, Eugene, preceding the presentation of the pageant.

Meeting Set By Adventists

Members of welfare groups in the Seventh-day Adventist Church will meet in Eugene Monday at the Seventh-day Adventist Welfare Center, First Avenue and Lawrence Street.

The meeting, for members of welfare groups in the McKenzie Valley Federation, will begin at 10 a.m., and continue through 3 p.m.

Speakers for the program, which will bring delegates from Medford and Roseburg, as well as Emerald Empire cities and communities, will be Elder C. J. Ritchie of Portland, home missionary secretary of the Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, and Bonner Allen of Portland, who works with the Book and Bible House.

Discussions and programs at the meeting will include discussions of welfare aid programs and problems. Federation meetings are held twice annually. Hostesses for the Eugene meeting will be Eugene and Springfield members of the Dorcas Societies.

Christian Science Public Lecture Set for April 20

The power of "scientific prayer" to overcome fear and other everyday problems will be discussed at a free public lecture April 20 in Eugene by Otto G. Ziegenhagen, a Christian Science lecturer from Chicago.

Ziegenhagen will speak at 8 p.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 14th Avenue and Pearl Street.

His topic will be "How Christian Science Destroys Fear." Ziegenhagen, now on a national tour for the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, is a former actor. In addition to stage and radio work, he taught "platform art" and literary interpretation.

In 1942, he entered the full-time practice of Christian Science, and became a Christian Science teacher in 1955.

'Friends' Official To Speak In City Sunday

Marshall Sutton, associate midwest secretary for the American section of The Friends World Committee for Consultation, will be a speaker in Eugene Sunday evening.

Sutton will speak at 7:30 p.m. at the Eugene Friends Meeting House, 2274 Onyx St., Eugene. His talk, "Friends Around the World," will be illustrated with colored slides he has taken on his travels in Africa, Europe and the Middle East.

Sunday's meeting will be a combined program for the Corvallis and Eugene Friends Meetings and the Eugene Friends Church. It is open to the public as well.

Sutton, originally from New York state where he was a member of the New York Yearly Meeting, served as executive secretary of the Baltimore (Md.) Yearly Meeting from 1952-58, has taught at a Friends boarding school, and has traveled abroad to two meetings of the Friends World Committee. For one year, he served with the American Friends Service Committee in the Middle East.

At present, his offices are at Wilmington College, Wilmington, Ohio.

Unitarians' Art Festival Continues

Eugene Unitarian Church, 477 E. 40th Ave., will continue its Spring Festival of Arts with a special program Sunday at 11 a.m.

This week's program will include poetry, religious meditations and musical selections. The Rev. Carl J. Nelson, minister of the church, will read selections from his poetry and religious meditations.

An instrumental group with vocal soloists will present "Inseclud, Kleine Reiner Seelen," by J. S. Bach. Mrs. Kenneth Cutler will be soprano soloist, and the ensemble will include Roderick Wright, violin; Edmund Cycler, viola; Karllyn Rhees, flute, and Nancy Sullivan, oboe.

Mrs. Frank Anderson will be soprano soloist for "Fleurs des Bles" by Debussy, and the string group will also perform "Have You Seen But a Whyte Lily Growing?", with Wright, Cycler and George Strubble, cello. Bert Olin will sing the bass solo.

A vocal trio, Mrs. Kenneth Zankel, Mrs. Bayard McConaughy and Mrs. Gerald Patterson, will sing "Lift Thine Eyes" from "The Elijah" by Mendelssohn.

Church Women to Meet Next Week in Portland

The Church Ecumenical—Its Mission" will be the general theme for this year's annual convention of the Oregon United Church Women in Portland Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. P. L. Herbig of Eugene, state president of the interdenominational organization for church women, will preside. She said the general theme of the meeting will be carried out in a panel discussion, "Is the Ecumenical Movement a Part of My Denomination in Oregon?"

Also on the program is an address by Mrs. Fred Buschmeyer of Washington, D.C., the convention's keynote speaker. Mrs. Buschmeyer, a member of the board of managers and executive committee of the National United Church Women, will speak on the theme of the national organization's groups, "Assignment: Race, 1961-64."

Mrs. Buschmeyer has traveled throughout the world for the organization and for her own church, the Congregational Christian church. Also on the program will be addresses by Gertrude Boyd Crane, retired professor at Pacific University, and the Rev. George Dick, executive director of the Oregon Council of Churches.
