USC Spikers Win on Final Event

LOS ALTOS, Calif. — Southern California won the mile relay, the final event of a rain-soaked, wind-swept dual track-and-field meet with Stanford Saturday, and with the victory edged the host Indians 73-72.

Stanford had asked to postpone the meet to Sunday but USC said it had to return to Los Angeles by Saturday night. The meet then was shifted from Stanford to the nearby Foothill College field.

In the shuffle, two Stanford triple men left, thinking the meet was Sunday. One of them, Sheridan Downey, has done 47 feet, 7 1/2 inches in the event. Stanford won the event without Downey, Steve Cortright jumping 47.1. But USC took both second and third of jumps of 42-9 1/4 by Max Johnson and 40-9 3/4 by Carlos DeLaresa.

Stanford, with Downey figured in, had been favored to take first and second or first and third and that would have given the Indians their first dual meet victory over the Trojans in 27 starts going back to 1933.

Stanford coach Payton Jordan, who is an ex-Trojan sprinter, would say only, "It was a tough one to lose."

Going into the mile relay, Stanford led 72-68. As the relay started, the first two Trojans, Dick Cortese and John Talsky,

Games Open At Sao Paulo With Parade

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — Bands played and artillery echoed over Pacaembu Stadium Saturday as the fourth Pan-American Games opened under a canopy of bright blue skies punctuated by splashes of sunshine.

Athletes from 22 nations of the Western Hemisphere paraded into the stadium, all wearing bright-colored Pan-American Games uniforms. Brazilian Boy Scouts in khaki and girls wearing bright red sashes formed an honor guard for the 1,800 male and female athletes.

Jose Telles Da Conceicao, a Brazilian athlete, entered the stadium with the Olympic torch moments after Gen. Jose De J. Clark of Lomas Altas, Mexico, president of the Pan-American Sports Organization, hoisted the Pan-American flag.

Some 5,000 doves, released from cages along the stadium track, hovered overhead, and three volleys by artillery penetrated the atmosphere.

Eight minutes after the torch bearer's entrance, the Olympic fire was touched off by the torch.

Amaury Passos, Brazilian basketball star, mounted a pedestal and took the oath of good sportsmanship in the names of the hundreds of athletes standing at attention on the playing field.

"In the name of all competitors," Passos intoned, "I swear that we will take part in these Pan-American Games, respecting and abiding by the rules which govern them, in the true spirit of sportsmanship, for the glory of sport and the honor of our country."

Gov. Adhemar de Barros of Sao Paulo State welcomed the athletes, saying, "I declare the Pan-American Games open."

Upwards of 50,000 people jammed the stadium, among them hundreds of school children.

Oregon Takes Rugby Crown

PORTLAND — Oregon, with Wally Wolf scoring three tries, swept to victory in three games to win the Northwest Invitational Rugby Championship at Delta Park Saturday.

The Ducks beat Oregon State 3-0 in the opener on a second-period try by Jeff Marsh which was set up by a 25-yard run by Larry Hill.

Against West Vancouver, the score again ended in a scoreless tie at halftime.

Then Wolf tallied twice, both times jarring the ball loose from a Vancouver player and picking it up for the score as the Ducks went on to win 8-2.

It was Wolf again in the final game breaking a scoreless tie in the second half by crashing ten yards for a try and leading Oregon to a 6-0 blanking of Washington. All-Coast football guard Mickey Ordling scored on a 25-yard penalty kick as the game ended.

In other contests West Vancouver beat Oregon State, 8-3 and Washington 3-0, and Oregon State downed Washington 3-0.

Stable Grabs Upset Verdict

NEW YORK (AP)—Jose Stable, a young body puncher from New York, upset ranking welterweight contender Curtis Coker of Dallas in an exciting 10-rounder at Sunnyside Garden Saturday night.

The Cuban-born Stable, who was not ranked by the World Boxing Association in its top ten listings, absorbed a fierce right hand barrage by Cokes to emerge with a unanimous decision.

Stable, 22 years old, weighed 145 1/2, one-quarter of a pound heavier than the 25-year-old Texan.

Stable's swarming attack paid off in 5-4-1 votes from the judges. Tony Rossi and Tony Castellano, Referee Jimmy Devlin, who refereed the nationally televised (ABC) clash, scored it 6-4 for Stable.

Stable was shaken up by hard rights in the second, ninth and 10th rounds and lost the eighth when he was penalized for a low left hook. But Cokes was unable to stave off the Cuban's weaving, two-fisted attack to the body.

Edstrom Wins Decathlon

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Former University of Oregon athlete Dave Edstrom dethroned six-time decathlon winner Phil Mulkey Saturday in the Kansas Relays.

A javelin throw of 218 feet, 6 inches put the star from Oxnard Air Force Base, Calif., ahead and Edstrom sealed his victory by taking third to Mulkey's fourth in the closing event, the 1,500-meter run.

Going into the javelin, the ninth event, Edstrom trailed by 272 points. His javelin effort shoved him in front by 104.

Edstrom finished with 7,423 points for the 10-event grind, 57 short of the meet record of 7,480 which Mulkey set last year. Mulkey had 7,316.

Mulkey managed only 161 feet, 10 inches for second place in the javelin, although he threw 172-6 last year and 187-4 1/2 in 1961.

Both Mulkey, a Birmingham, Ala., high school science teacher and former Wyoming and Memphis State athlete, and Edstrom were members of the 1960 U.S. Olympic team.

Mulkey carried a 155-pound lead over Edstrom into the final five events Saturday. Edstrom won the discus and tied for first in the 110-meter hurdles to creep within 31 points before Mulkey won the pole vault at 14 feet. Edstrom cleared 12-6 for a three-way tie for second.

Steve Rogers of Kansas State finished third with 6,170 points.

Edstrom's and Mulkey's event-by-event performances (with decathlon points in parentheses):

Eugene Y Second

North Bend Takes Basin Swim Crown

REEDSPORT — North Bend scored 300 points to win the Columbia Basin District 3 girls' swim championship Saturday.

The Eugene Y followed with 249, Reedport with 148, River Road with 82, Medford Y with 44 and Sweet Home with 17.

The Eugene Y's Gayle Guthrie was a four-time winner in the 13-14 age group, winning the individual medley, and 50-yard butterfly and swimming a leg of the winning 200-yard medley and 200-yard freestyle relay teams.

The top six finishers in each event qualified for the Columbia Basin championships to be held in Springfield May 4-5.

Charles Ups Lead in Golf

Charles Ups Lead in Golf

HOUSTON — Slender Bob Charles, the New Zealand left-hander, used a hot putter Saturday for his second straight 66 and a record 54-hole 199 to take a three-stroke lead over Jack Nicklaus in the third round of the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic.

The 11-under-par 199 by the National left-hander champion was the lowest 54-hole total in the 17-year history of the classic and also was the lowest scored on a PGA tournament this year.

Charles started the round with a one-stroke lead over Nicklaus and amateur Kermit Zarley, lost it momentarily on the front nine but regained it on the ninth hole and then birdied three of the last six holes.

Nicklaus, meanwhile, was placing a 68 behind earlier rounds of 65 and 69 for a 202. Fred Hawkins, the El Paso pro who has not won a tournament since 1956, had a 66 to jump to third place at 203.

"I'm putting better than I have all year," said the 27-year-old Charles. "I've had only two three-putt greens in three days. This really is not a difficult course. If you stay down the middle and sink your putts, you'll do 70 or better."

Oregon State Wins

CORVALLIS — Oregon State defeated Washington State and Idaho Saturday in a track-and-field meet highlighted by the performances of Tom Wyatt and Norm Hoffman.

The scores were Oregon State 99, Washington State 46, and Oregon State 81, Idaho 9. No triangular meet scores were kept at the request of Washington State Coach Jack Mooberry.

Wyatt tied a school record in winning the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.3 seconds. Teammate Hoffman took the mile with a time of 4 minutes, 8.9 seconds.

Morgan Gross of Oregon State turned in another fine performance in the rain and 40-degree weather by finishing first in the 880. He was clocked in 1:51.1.

The visitors won only five events.

Eliff Fredericksen of Washington State was first in the broad jump at 23 feet, 3 1/2 inches and in the triple jump at 46-10 1/4.

John Chaplin of Washington State won the 220-yard low hurdles in 22.4 and his teammate, Jim Allen, the 330-yard intermediate hurdles in 37.5.

Paul Henden of Idaho, in 9:14.4 seconds, edged Oregon State's Rich Cuddihy in a two-mile duel.

Yang Paces UCLA

LOS ANGELES — The remarkable C. K. Yang of UCLA captured four first places, ran a lap on the winning 440-yard relay and barely missed a world record in the pole vault but Occidental defeated the Bruins in a dual track-and-field meet Saturday, 74 1/2-70 1/2.

For the third time this spring the 29-year-old Yang from Nationalist China scaled 16 feet or better and narrowly missed in his first try at 16-5 1/2. The last two attempts were not close. He capped for 16 even.

Yang, co-captain of the UCLA team, is aiming at the official world record of 16-2 1/2 held by Finland's Pentti Nikula and the more recent 16-4 set by John Pennel of Northeast Louisiana State.

Yang, who is also a threat to set a world decathlon record, won the javelin throw at 226-4 1/2, the broad jump at 24-5 1/2, the pole vault at 16-0 and the high hurdles in 14.1.

Rawls Leads Golf Tourney

Rawls Leads Golf Tourney

MIAMI — Steady Betsy Rawls turned in another smooth one-under-par 71 Saturday and went five strokes into the lead of the $7,500 Sunshine Open golf tournament while her opponents faltered.

The two-round 142 total for the Spartanburg, S.C., golfer put her ahead of Sybil Griffin of Chattanooga, and Mickey Wright, Dallas, tied at 147, going into the third and last round over the LeJeune golf course.

Miss Griffin and Kathy Whitworth, Jal. N. Mex., were tied just a stroke off the pace Friday. Miss Griffin fired a 75 Saturday, three over par, and Miss Whitworth had a 77 and fell back to a 149 total.

Miss Rawls, the other second-place golfer after the second round, shot a 71 Saturday, improving her 76 of Friday.

Miss Rawls, an 11-year-veteran of the lady pro circuit, and 19-year-old Sandra Haynie of Houston were tied with 71s after Friday's opening round, but Miss Haynie fell down on her putting Saturday and wound up with a five-over 77 and a 148 total.
