ness, and then ended up in the World War II internment camps — and the struggles they had surviving with their business once they got out and tried to reestablish it.

Saturday's Our United Villages event, at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 5431 NE 20th Ave., is from noon – 3 p.m. It features: Minnie Bell Johnson, trustee emeritus and member of Bethel AME for the past 67 years; and Paul Knauls, "mayor" of Northeast Portland and resident since 1963; Bernadette Scott on the history of Coast Janitorial Service; O.B. Hill on the history of the Knott St. Community Center; James E. O'Connor on the history of the Oregon Park site; Polo Catalani speaking on the history of North and Northeast Portland refugee resettlement; and Michael Roth of the Rose City Park History Project.

There will also be an open forum for anyone to share their artifacts, photographs, or stories of NE Portland history.

The event is free and a light lunch is provided. Call ahead to reserve a seat at 503-546-7499 or write to outreach@ourunitedvillages.org. For more info, visit www.ourcommunityoutreach.org. Submissions to the My Civil Rights Story Project can be mailed through the U.S. Postal Service to My Civil Rights Story, 17915 NW Lonerock Drive, Portland, OR 97229. Or they can be emailed to brad@mycivilrightsstory.net. For more tips on how to write and submit your story, go to www.mycivilrightsstory.net.
