

George Fox, Christian Studies

George Fox University is Oregon's nationally recognized Christian university, providing students with personal attention, global opportunities to learn and serve, and a supportive community that encourages academic rigor and spiritual growth. We offer bachelor's degrees in more than 40 majors, adult degree programs, five seminary degrees, and 12 master's and doctoral degrees. George Fox is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities, and in 2010-11 Forbes ranked George Fox among the top 150 colleges in America and among the nation's top three Christian colleges.

Newberg campus is 23 miles from Portland, Ore., and is situated within driving distance of both Mt. Hood and the Pacific Coast.

Study Abroad
More than half our traditional undergraduates study internationally before graduating, ranking the university No. 49 out of 1,400 American colleges in study-abroad participation.

Extracurricular Activities
Opportunities for extracurricular involvement include music, drama, journalism, student government, radio, clubs, intramurals and intercollegiate athletics. George Fox competes in NCAA Division III athletics.

More than 3,400 students attend classes on the university's residential campus in Newberg, Ore., at its Portland, Salem and Boise (Idaho) centers, and at other teaching sites in Oregon.

WSU-Vancouver, Array of Business Offerings

Washington State University Vancouver provides quality education to the residents of Southwest Washington and the Portland metropolitan area. With a student population of 3,000, WSU Vancouver offers a small-college atmosphere with public university access. The beautiful 351-acre campus is located just 10 miles north of Portland up I-5 or I-205.

Education - WSU Vancouver delivers personalized education that enhances the intellectual, creative and practical abilities of its students. The university currently offers 18 bachelor's degrees, 10 master's degrees and more than 37 fields of study.

Bachelor's degrees - anthropology, biology, business administration, computer science, digital technology and culture, education, electrical engineering, English, environmental science, history, human development, humanities, mechanical engineering, nursing, psychology, public affairs, social sciences and sociology.

Master's degrees - accounting (MAcc), business administration (MBA), computer science (MS), education (EdM), environmental science (MS), history (MA), mechanical engineering (MS), nursing (MN), public affairs (MPA), and teaching (MIT).

WSU Vancouver also offers a doctorate degree in education (Ed.D.).

Research - WSU Vancouver is a premier research university. More than 130 doctoral teaching scholars work side-by-side with graduate and undergraduate students in computer, engineering, multimedia, nursing, psychology and science laboratories. Together they conduct research of regional, national and international impact—fueling economic growth and development in our region.

Campus and Student Life - The WSU Vancouver campus features a bookstore, cafeteria, student commons, student services center, study hall areas, art galleries, a sports court, fitness center and a system of biking and pedestrian trails. The library is stocked with more than 30,000 books, access to more than 100 databases, 9,000 full-text online journals, and extensive web connections that make it a personal gateway to worldwide research materials.

Student life centers around a variety of activities, including an active student government and nearly 50 registered student organizations that make it easy for students to connect with others who share their passion. Weekend snowboarding, skiing and rock climbing trips, and intramural sports offer balance to academic pursuits.

Scholarships - Roughly 75 percent of WSU Vancouver's student population takes advantage of some form of scholarship or financial aid to help finance their education. Workshops on how to apply for both are offered regularly and experts are available to lend a hand in the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships at (360) 546-9559 or by e-mailing finaid@vancouver.wsu.edu.
