REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

METRO PARKS AND ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES
TRANSPORTATION AND PROCESSING
SERVICES
FOR ORGANIC WASTE FROM METRO
CENTRAL TRANSFER STATION
RFP 12-1975

The Parks and Environmental Services Department of Metro, a metropolitan service district organized under the laws of the State of Oregon and the Metro Charter, located at 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232-2736, is requesting proposals for transportation and processing services for up to 50,000 tons of organic waste from the Metro region, beginning January 1, 2012 and continuing for a five year period.

Proposals will be due no later than close of business, October 13, 2011 in Metro's business offices at 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232-2736 Attention: Karen Slusarenko, RFP 12-1975.

The Metro region comprises three counties and 25 cities with a combined population of nearly 1.6 million people. The commercial and residential sectors in the region dispose of over 240,000 tons of organic waste (e.g., all types of food waste including fruits and vegetables, meats, seafood, grains, dairy and bakery waste) and compostable non-recyclable paper (e.g. food-soiled paper, waxed corrugated cardboard) annually. It is estimated that approximately 55% of this waste is generated by the commercial sector and 45% from residences. In 2010, the region recovered and composted over 22,500 tons of organic waste ("organics") from the commercial sector; 17,700 tons of this material was received at Metro Central Transfer Station, referred to as Metro Central Station or MCS.

The organic waste generated by the commercial sector is the focus of this procurement. Targeted businesses include grocers (retail and wholesale), restaurants, food service, caterers, institutional cafeterias and kitchens, and food processors. Metro estimates that this sector generates approximately 136,000 tons per year of recoverable organic waste.

Proposal documents may be viewed and downloaded from Metro's website at www.oregonmetro.gov/index.cfm/go/by.web/id=24894.

Metro may accept or reject any or all bids, in whole or in part, or waive irregularities not affecting substantial rights if such action is deemed in the public interest.

Metro extends equal opportunity to all persons and specifically encourages minority, women-owned and emerging small businesses to access and participate in this and all Metro projects, programs and services.

Metro and its contractors will not discriminate against any person(s), employee or applicant for employment based on race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, religion, physical handicap, political affiliation or marital status. Metro fully complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related statutes and regulations in all programs and activities.
