The Skanner Foundation's
Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast.

Kendaris Hill came to the University of Oregon to make a difference. The senior – with an academic focus on ethnic studies and business – is the co-director of the Brother-to-Brother program, a resident assistant for the Oregon Young Scholars Program and the former president of the Black Student Union. He is a recipient of the 2011 Lane County Martin Luther King Award and received the Intercultural Mentoring Program Advancing Community Ties (IMPACT) Directors Award. But it's only the beginning for Kendaris, whose dream is to earn a master's degree in education in order to work with high school and college students from under-represented communities. His work and our sponsorship make a difference.
