

Born at Legacy Emanuel. Raised in the neighborhood.

One of four siblings born at Legacy Emanuel Medical Center, Joyce Dougherty grew up in her family's home just a few blocks from the hospital.

Recognizing the importance of a healthy community, Joyce, a registered dietitian, now directs a statewide program bringing nutritious food to schoolchildren.

Legacy Emanuel, celebrating its 100th year, has been central to the health of the neighborhood and the region for generations. As part of our anniversary, we are honoring the stories that have built Emanuel's legacy.
