

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Proud Sponsor of Another Bright Future

The Skanner Foundation's Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast

Myesha Abdulrahman got a letter during her senior year at Portland's Jefferson High School that changed her life. The University of Oregon had promised to pay her tuition through PathwayOregon. Her college journey introduced her to strong mentors, professionals and peers who were there to ensure she had the support she needed to succeed. From the UO Black Student Union to the Center for Multicultural Academic Excellence, the resources Ducks need are continually growing and expanding. Today, Myesha is in graduate school, studying Public Administration with a specialization in Human Resource Management and looking forward to giving back to her community—to make a difference for others who will someday see her as a mentor.

We Are Oregon

uoregon.edu/diversity

An equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.