

Creating Community Artfully

The City of Portland’s second annual Creating Community Artfully celebration last week at Emmanuel Church featured art of all kinds as well as performances honoring new Grammy winners Thara Memory and Esperanza Spalding, as well as the late Obo Addy. Above, members of the Obo Addy Legacy Project performed before the ceremony; above right, the No Kidding! Choir sang; and writer, poet, painter and performer S. Renee Mitchell received a lifetime achievement award. Below, from left, Ken Berry; Chisao Hata, Thara Memory, S. Renee Mitchell; and Michael ‘Chappie’ Grice. The event was organized by Mitchell and Tim Hall, City of Portland Water Bureau.
