KW: When you look in the mirror, what do you see?

ZH: Wow! I truly love this. When I look in the mirror I see my parents’ sacrifices being honored. I see the love from which I was created and the power of the human spirit.

KW: If you could have one wish instantly granted, what would that be for?

ZH: I would wish for one last experience and conversation with my grandfather.

KW: The Jamie Foxx question: What would you do, if you only had 24 hours to live? Would you do the bad stuff, you never got a chance to do, or would you do good stuff to make sure you make it into heaven?

ZH: If I had 24 hours to live I wouldn’t waste it on doing the “bad” stuff. I would savor every moment, every memory, and every loved one.

KW: The Kerry Washington question: If you were an animal, what animal would you be?

ZH: I think this has changed over time. At this moment, I would be a horse. They are intelligent, powerful, beautiful, and graceful.

KW: The Ling-Ju Yen question: What is your earliest childhood memory?

ZH: My earliest memory is of me crying at the airport in Medellin, Colombia as I said goodbye to my father when we were headed for America. I was 4.

KW: The Anthony Mackie question: Is there something that you promised to do if you became famous, that you still haven’t done yet.

ZH: Yes, I’d like to buy my mother her dream home. Hopefully it will happen soon.

KW: The Melissa Harris-Perry question: How did your first big heartbreak impact who you are as a person?

ZH: Heartbreak is essential. We grow, evolve, and learn about the most beautiful thing ever: Love! My first heartbreak taught me that love is supposed to ADD beauty and happiness to my already love-filled life!

KW: The Viola Davis question: What’s the difference between who you are at home as opposed to the person you pretend to be on the red carpet?

ZH: There’s this whole sexy thing that happens to women when we walk the red carpet, and it’s all okay! At home, I am so many other things! I am just a girl dreaming. I am emotional and goofy.

KW: The Anthony Anderson question: If you could have a superpower, which one would you choose?

ZH: I’d like to be able to see into people’s hearts.

KW: The Judyth Piazza question: What

key quality do you believe all successful people share?

ZH: Self-awareness and kindness. Being a generous giver!

KW: The Michael Ealy question: If you could meet any historical figure, who would it be?

ZH: I would love to meet Martin Luther King. His fearless attitude, leadership, and self-awareness changed our world.

KW: The Harriet Pakula-Teweles question: With so many classic films being redone, is there a remake you’d like to star in?

ZH: Yes!! I would love to play Scarlett O’Hara in Gone with the Wind!

KW: What advice do you have for anyone who wants to follow in your footsteps?

ZH: Always be who YOU are, be self-aware, and love yourself tremendously!

KW: Attorney Bernadette Beekman asks: What is your favorite charity?

ZH: I like the influence and responsibility the Red Cross has become known for.

KW: The Tavis Smiley question: How do you want to be remembered?

ZH: I would like to be remembered as someone who gave it all and went for it all, As a woman of strong conviction, character, dignity, and talent who always put God first.

KW: Thanks again for the time, Zulay, and best of luck with the new show.

ZH: Thank you so very much, Kam. God bless you!
