DiaTribe: Uniting African, American Cultures

Following up on beloved, now-deceased musician Obo Addy's unique event, DiaTribe: From the Village to the Streets last year, organizer Alan Wone is bringing the event back in a bigger venue – free of charge to the public. DiaTribe: In the Park is designed to show the linkages between African music traditions and African-American culture, with live music, dance, spoken word, krumping and more. Here, from left Alex Addy, Charles Armah, Mashud Neindow, Richmond, Eben, and Okuley Tetteh rehearse for the show. The event is Monday, Aug. 5, from 6 -8 p.m. in Washington Park. Tickets are free, and seating is first come, first served. For more information go to www.oboaddylegacyproject.org, or on Facebook search for DiaTribe in the Park.
