

Kam’s Kapsules: For Movies Opening Aug. 30

BIG BUDGET FILMS

Closed Circuit (R for profanity and brief violence) Legal thriller about a couple of ex-lover lawyers (Eric Bana and Rebecca Hall) whose lives are threatened when they decide to defend the prime suspect (Dennis Moschitto) in the terrorist bombing of a bustling London market. With Jim Broadbent, Ciaran Hinds and Claudia Simons-Howe.

Getaway (PG-13 for profanity, rude gestures, mayhem and pervasive violence) High-octane action thriller revolving around a retired race car driver (Ethan Hawke) who hijacks a custom-built Mustang and joins forces with a cute computer whiz (Selena Gomez) to rescue his wife (Rebecca Budig) from the clutches of a mysterious kidnapper (Jon Voigt). With Paul Freeman, Bruce Payne and Ivailo Geraskov.

One Direction: This Is Us (PG for mild epithets) Oscar-nominee Morgan Spurlock (for Super Size Me) directs this concert flick featuring backstage footage and chronicling the British boy band’s meteoric rise to superstardom. Quintet includes Niall Horan, Zayn Malik, Liam Payne, Harry Styles and and Louis Tomlinson.

Flag turns realistic when jealousy rears its ugly head. Ensemble cast includes Siam Yu, Gage Munroe, Michael Friend, Aidan Gouveia and Mackenzie Munro.

The Lifeguard (R for drug use, profanity, disturbing images, graphic nudity and explicit sexuality) Kristen Bell stars in the title role of this jailbait drama as a jaded, NYC TV reporter who quits her to move back home to suburban Connecticut to work as a lifeguard only to end up having an affair with a troubled, 16 year-old (David Lambert). With Mamie Gummer, Martin Starr, Joshua Harto and John Finn.

Our Nixon (Unrated)

Tricky Dick documentary, first aired on CNN, revisiting the events surrounding the Watergate break-in which brought down the Nixon administration. Featuring recently-unearthed, Super 8 film footage of White House insiders John Ehrlichman, Dwight Chapin and H.R. Bob Haldeman.

On Sunday, September 15, 1963, a bomb exploded at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church in Birmingham Alabama, killing four little girls: Addie Mae Collins, Denise McNair, Carole Robertson and Cynthia Wesley. This deadly explosion marked a turning point in the American Civil Rights Movement. Fifty years later, on Sunday, September 15, 2013, WE REMEMBER!
