

The 2014 Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast

Ben Basom, Director of Communication, Pacific N.W. Regional Council of Carpenters, presents a scholarship to Kaitlan Purkapile, attending Portland State University

Sponsors and Scholarship Winners

Scholarships of $1,000 are awarded at the annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast to help students from the Portland area pursue higher education. Through gifts provided by our corporate sponsors The Skanner is able to help deserving college students on an equal opportunity basis.

Patrick Quinton of PDC presents a scholarship to Selam Wako attending the University of Oregon. On her behalf Hanna Atenafu accepts it.

Steve Frisby of Safeway Stores presents a scholarship to Marneet Lewis who attends Warner Pacific University

Roger Thompson, vice president for Enrollment Management at the University of Oregon, presents a scholarship to Shaniece Curry, attending the University of Oregon.

Leslie Garcia, assistant chief diversity officer at Oregon Health & Science University presents a scholarship to Alyson Knapper, attending Rice University. Accepting on her behalf is her mother Vickie Guinn.

Dr. James Mason, executive director of Culturally Competent Care giving at Providence Health Systems, presents a scholarship to Christine Trinh, attending Georgetown University. Accepting on her behalf is her sister, Victoria Trinh.

Dr. Lori Morgan, chief administrative officer of Legacy Health Systems, presents a scholarship to Hanna Atenafu, attending Oregon State University.

Pat Reiten, president and CEO of Pacific Power & Light, presents a scholarship to Veronica Medhanie, attending Portland State University.

Lisa Smiley and Cobi Jackson of Wells Fargo Bank, present a scholarship to Henry Sissac, attending DeLa Salle North Catholic High School and heading to Washington State University, Vancouver

Betty Dominquez, East County program director at Home Forward, presents a scholarship to Ashleigh Miller-Hayes, attending Franklin High School and heading to Seattle Pacific University.

Jeff Heatherington, president and CEO of Family Care, presents a scholarship to Dayja Curry, attending DeLa Salle North Catholic High School and heading to the University of Illinois

Bernie Foster, president of The Skanner Foundation, presents a scholarship to Samrawit Dagne, attending Reynolds High School and on her way to Oregon State University

Bernie Foster, president of The Skanner Foundation, presents a scholarship for Michelle Carr attending Kent State University. Accepting on her behalf is her father William Carr.

See more photos on the page 4