

The 2014 Martin Luther King Jr. Breakfast

Mayor Charlie Hales

A fitting tribute to Martin Luther King Jr. with orchids by Avalon Flowers

Ben Basom of NW Carpenters

Bobbie Dore Foster, Vice President of The Skanner Foundation

Africa House

*Thank You to All Who Attended
The Skanner Foundation
2014 Martin Luther King
Jr. Breakfast*

Lisa Loving, Joyce Braden, Bernie Foster

Steve Frisby, President, N.W. Safeway Division; Jack Roberts, Oregon Lottery; Gary Oxley, CEO, Oxley and Associates

Patrick Quinton, Executive Director, Portland Development Corp.; Charlie Hales, Mayor of Portland; Bruce Goldberg, M.D., executive director, Cover Oregon

Celebration

continued from page 5

patient centered care; integrating mental and physical health care; having a plan to improve care for the 20 percent of the population with complex problems that drive 80 percent of the costs...

(Read full speech as prepared for delivery in our opinion commentary section.)

I'm here today to tell you we have begun. We have begun to close the great divide. In weeks to come even more people will have healthcare. And we're looking to improve the care everyone receives....

9:22 a.m. Dr. Goldberg takes questions: Lisa Loving: Can you respond to article in this weekend's Oregonian. It said you had not had the full information?

What we've done is bring in more technology experts to check the code and help us be certain we have what we need. We're actively fixing things and making it better...

Q: Millions of dollars in and no website working. What will you do to make Oregonians whole?

Dr. Goldberg: We're actively signing people up and we will get everyone signed up. We also are asking for subsidies for people who from no fault of their own were not signed up in time.

9:32 a.m. Bobbie Dore Foster introduces the Platinum Scholarship sponsors:

Ben Basom, director of the Pacific NW Regional Council of Carpenters, presents a scholarship to Kaitlan Purkapile, attending Portland State University

Steve Frisby, president of Portland Division of Safeway, presents a scholarship to Marneet Lewis attending Warner Pacific University

Patrick Quinton, executive director of the Portland

We're actively signing people up and we will get everyone signed up

—Dr. Bruce Goldberg, Cover Oregon

Development Commission, presents a scholarship to Salem Wako, attending the University of Oregon.

"Who will fill these new jobs, build these new buildings. How do we make sure no-one is left behind? We are committed to working with the community." Quinton mentions the Trader Joes development deal and pledges a deeper conversation on making sure people prosper in place.

Roger Thompson, vice president for Enrollment Management at the University of Oregon, presents a scholarship to Shaniece Curry, attending the University of Oregon.

Gold and Silver sponsors:

Leslie Garcia, assistant chief diversity officer at Oregon Health & Science University presents a scholarship to Alyson Knapper, attending Rice University.

Dr. James Mason, executive director of culturally competent care giving Providence Health Systems, presents a scholarship to Christine Trinh, attending Georgetown University.

Betty Dominquez, East County program director, at Home Forward, presents a scholarship to Ashleigh Miller-Hayes, attending Franklin High School and heading to Seattle Pacific University.

Jeff Heatherington, president and CEO of Family Care, presents a scholarship to Dayja Curry, attending DeLa Salle North Catholic High School and heading to the University of Illinois.

Dr. Lori Morgan, chief administrative officer of Legacy

See LIVE on page 7