

Housing

Habitat

continued from page 5

Saturday, May 31, 2014
1:30 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.
Portland Lutheran School - Cafeteria
740 SE 182nd Ave., Portland, OR 97233

Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East is looking for families that have a good credit history, a steady income, currently have a housing need, and earn 30 percent to 60 percent of the median household income in the Portland area (a family of four must earn between $20,800 and land Metro area that offers homeownership opportuni-

Habitat is one of the only organizations in the Portland Metro area that offers homeownership opportunities to hardworking families making as little as $20,800

$41,640 per year). Habitat is one of the only organizations in the Port-ties to hardworking families making as little as $20,800 (for a family of four). We do model in which the home-owner helps to build and then buys their home with a 0 percent-interest Habitat mortgage.

Additionally, Habitat offers home repair services to low-income homeowners, using the same 0 percent-interest loan and sweat equity model. Instead of being in a vulnerable and fragile economic position, Habitat families find themselves in a position of strength. Habitatportland-metro.org

Anyone interested in volunteering or offering donations is encouraged to call Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East at 503-287-9529 or visit habitatportlandmetro.org.

GET NOTICED IN THE SKANNER

Call Today for Advertising Rates

503-285-5555

THE SKANNER®.com

Class Divide in Seattle
Economic Study: Drop in inner-city inequality due to gentrification?

KING DAY

Racist Tweets Lose
Garfield High School beats Baskin's and racism, wins title

TIMBERS!

Disputes
in Vancouver

Insurance penalties powered by Solar Energy

online

about us