The American Diabetes Association and the Father's Day Council of Oregon and Southwest Washington honored four exceptional fathers at the 2nd Annual Father of the Year Awards, on Wednesday, June 4, at the Moda Center. The recipients of the Father of the Year Award were, from left, and Charles Wilhoite, Managing Director, Willamette Management Associates; Lynn Gust, president, Fred Meyer Stores; Donald L. Krahmer, Jr., shareholder, Schwabe, Williamson and Wyatt; Chris McGowan, president and CEO, Portland Trail Blazers and the Moda Center. The Association raised more than $328,000 at the event in support of its mission to prevent and cure diabetes and to improve the lives of all people affected by diabetes. The fathers were presented with the 2014 Father of the Year Award by their children, following touching videos highlighting each father and their families.

Juneteenth at the North Portland Library

Join revelers and history lovers on the North Portland lawn to celebrate Juneteenth with words and music under the skies, followed by an Ice Cream Social, Thursday, June 19 starting at 6 p.m. at the North Portland Library, 512 N Killingsworth St.

On June 19, 1865, two years after the Emancipation Proclamation, Union soldiers brought Texans the news that the Civil War had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Juneteenth, the observance of that date, has become a national celebration of freedom.
