

Garfield Wins State

Garfield High School Basketball coach Ed Haskins and senior point guard Tramaine Isabell stand by the trophy they won as Washington State 4A champs. Isabell was also the MVP of the State tournament. Experts say that Black teens and preteens targeted by racist cyberbullying are vulnerable to depression, anxiety, and related problems over time.

PHOTO BY SUSAN FRIED

Diamond Jubilee

PHOTO COURTESY RAYMOND BURRELL III

The Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church celebrated its 70th anniversary with a Diamond Event welcoming all its extended membership in a festive community reunion, as well as Mayor Charlie Hales and numerous luminaries.

CELEBRATE AMERICA'S GREATEST CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER

THE SKANNER

29TH ANNUAL
Martin Luther KING, JR.
BREAKFAST

Keynote speaker: Dr. Benjamin F. Chavis, Jr., is the current CEO & President of the National Newspaper Publishers Association and reknown civil rights leader. While a freshman at college he served on the advance team for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. As one of the Wilmington Ten, Chavis spent nearly a decade in prison before his sentence was overturned in 1980.

Tickets available: MLKBreakfast@theskanner.com

Monday
January 19, 2015
8:30-10:30 a.m.

Oregon Convention Center
777 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Portland, OR 97232

sponsors:

