The Million Cat Challenge

The Humane Society for Southwest Washington joins animal shelters across North America to save the lives of one million more cats in the next five years. It's all part of a joint campaign of the Maddie's Shelter Medicine Program at the University of Florida and the UC Davis Koret Shelter Medicine Program.

Animals - including cats - are always available for adoption during shelter hours, 12 - 6 p.m. on Tuesdays - Sundays. For a list of all animals currently available for adoption, visit www.southwesthumane.org or call 360-693-4746.

All pet adoptions include: Spay or neuter surgery, microchip ID system and national registration, vaccinations, free veterinary exam with a local participating veterinarian, animal training information and low-cost pet insurance options.

The Million Cat Challenge is based on five key initiatives that offer every shelter, in every community, practical choices to reduce euthanasia and increase adoptions for cats. For more info go to www.southwesthumane.org.

didn't even know that he was changing the world through humor. He was uniting African-American and white Americans through his humor. He didn't know, and I hope to do him justice.

KW: Marcia Evans says: Lee, I'm major proud of all your work, and I'm digging Empire. Congratulations on your weight loss. You're looking good. Vegan is working for you.

LD: [Belly laugh] I'm not really vegan. I'm vegan-ish. I have a piece of lamb every now and then.

KW: Thanks again for the time, Lee, and best of luck with Empire.

LD: Thank you, Kam. Talk to you soon.
