

40 Years of Service

People: Kids & Sports

Start of the Junior Varsity Men's 100 meter race during meet between Benson Polytechnic High and Jefferson High

Don Johnson, coach of The Police Activities League tennis team

Children in the Imani/Young Life Program juggling scarves under the instruction of Scott "Mag" Hughes

November 4, 1986, Neil Goldschmidt is elected governor of Oregon, defeating Norma Paulus

August 17, 1988, Joseph “Ray-Ray” Winston killed in the city’s first drive-by shooting

November 13, 1988, Mulugeta Seraw, an unarmed Black man, is beaten to death by racist skinheads in Southeast Portland

November 7, 1989, Norman B. Rice elected mayor of Seattle

1990s

October 20, 1990, Racist skinhead Tom Metzger is convicted of inciting young followers to kill Mulugeta Seraw

January 1, 1993, Larry Gossett begins first term on King County Council

January 12, 1994, “OAME Takes Over Business Incubator”

February 2, 1994, “Harold Moss, Tacoma’s First Black Mayor Sworn In”

March 2, 1994, “Portland Police Oversight Plan Falters in Neighborhoods”

May 4,1994, “MLK Boulevard Stands Alone; Union Signs Come Down”

January 25, 1995, “GOP Bill Would Toughen Juvenile Crime Sanctions: Meanwhile, Social Legislation Lags”

February 15, 1995, “Home-buying Program Invites Police to Live in City where they Work”