

40 Years of Service

Issues: Skinheads

Dick Bogle speaking at City of Unity Rainbow Rally

Demonstrators marching outside of Portland City Hall in response to the murder of Mulugeta Seraw

State Representative Margaret Carter holding microphone leading Black United Front's annual March Against Racist Violence with "U-N-I-T-Y" chant

- January 3, 1996, "The Invisible Men of Northeast: Workforce Development Study Reveals Portrait of Chronic Unemployed"
- November 5, 1996, Avel Gordly becomes first Black woman elected to the Oregon State Senate
- March 12, 1997, "Breaking the Cycle of Street Violence: Community Meetings Target Causes"
- April 30, 1997, "Residents Denounce Drug-Free Zones: Judge Rules Police Must Choose Between Exclusion and Prosecution"
- November 3, 1998, Jackie Winters becomes first Black Republican elected to Oregon legislature

THANK YOU TO THE SKANNER AND
THE FOSTER FAMILY
FOR 40 YEARS
OF EXCELLENCE
IN OUR COMMUNITY.

Urban League
of Portland

Nkenge Harmon Johnson
President & CEO

503.280.2600 | ULPDX.ORG
10 N RUSSELL STREET | PORTLAND OR 97227