

Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast Photos

Photos by Julie Keefe

Keynote Speaker Charles Bonner

Students from Roosevelt H.S. with Charles Bonner

Drum Major for Justice Award

PHOTO BY SUSAN FRIED

Senator Patty Murray (D-WA) poses with Eddie Rye, Jr., the recipient of The Skanner Foundation's 2016 Drum Major For Justice Award. Rye was instrumental in renaming Seattle's Empire Way to Martin Luther King, Jr. Way and in organizing the city's first MLK celebration in 1983.

PHOTO BY ANTONIO HARRIS

The Skanner Foundation Scholarship Recipients

Jessica Isibor receives a scholarship from Ron Robbins of the Pacific NW Regional Council of Carpenters.

Hanna Atenafu accepts a scholarship on behalf of Selam Wako from Patrick Quinton of the Portland Development Commission.

Linda Sharpe receiving on behalf of her daughter Dayja Curry from the University of Oregon.

Cameron Retherford receives a scholarship from Jack Roberts, director of the Oregon Lottery.

Thomas Trinh receives a scholarship from Jeff Heatherington, CEO of Family Care, on behalf of his daughter Victoria Trinh.

Hanna Atenafu receives a scholarship from Melanie Maurice of Oregon Health and Sciences University.

Ruben Sanchez (not present at the MLK Breakfast) received a scholarship from Providence Health & Services

Dylan Jones receives a scholarship from Mayor Charlie Hales from the City of Portland.

McKenzie Strong receives a scholarship from Betty Domingues from Home Forward.

Veronica Medhanie receives a scholarship from Scott Bolton from Pacific Power and Light.

Anthony Sylvester receives a scholarship from Turner Construction.

Janelle Arnold receives a scholarship from Andrew Tweedie and Cobi Lewis of Wells Fargo.

Bernie Foster presents a Skanner Foundation scholarship award to William Carr on behalf of Michelle Carr.

Bernie Foster presents a Skanner Foundation scholarship award to Kaitlan Purkapile.

Maxine Fitzpatrick presents a Skanner Foundation scholarship award to Luis Sosa.