

MACY'S CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

February 2016

Join us this February as we salute a rising icon of African American culture!

African American actors, artists and performers have been commanding the spotlight for decades, but the newest generation of trendsetters is in a class all its own.

Join us "In Conversation" with actress JURNEE SMOLLETT-BELL for an entertaining look at the next wave of African American cultural luminaries and taste makers! Then enjoy a special reception following the discussion where you'll get a chance to meet Jurnee and snap a photo with her!

Check out our exclusive interview and content, and find an event near you at macys.com/celebrate

Jurnee Smollett-Bell

Best known for her award-winning performance in The Great Debaters, and for her role on the critically acclaimed series, Friday Night Lights. Jurnee has appeared in numerous films and television shows, and her newest project, Underground, debuts on WGN America this spring!

