Police Bureau Seeks Public Input on Directives

The Portland Police Bureau directs member action through the establishment of policy, procedure, and rule, as found within directives. The bureau is in the process of reviewing all of its directives and seeks public comments.

Currently, the Bureau is asking for the community's feedback regarding the following directive(s): 333.00 Criminal Investigations of Police Bureau Employees.

These directives in 2nd Universal Review will remain posted with comments collected until Aug. 22.

Community members are encouraged to read this directive at www.portlandoregon.gov/police/59757 and follow the link at the bottom of the draft to provide comments. This webpage also enables community members to sign up for email notifications when new or revised directives are posted.

Genealogical Forum of Oregon Hosts Beginners' Boot Camp

The Genealogical Forum of Oregon will host a beginners' boot camp from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Aug. 12 at 2505 SE 11th Ave., Suite B-18.

This full day of beginning genealogy will include classes about census and vital records, immigration and naturalization, discussions about genealogy software and databases, organizing research and more. Bring a sack lunch so discussion can continue while participants eat. Attendees are encouraged to bring their laptops, but it is not required. GFO members may attend for free, non-members pay $20 at the door.

If you would like to attend, email RSVP@GFO.org. Course materials will be emailed in advance.

Casting Call: Production of Staged! Conservatory's 1980s Teen Musical

After a successful staged reading during January's Fertile Ground Festival, Staged! Is ready to launch the fully staged world premiere of Mark LaPierre and Eric Nordin's sweetly smart musical homage to the John Hughes generation.

Auditions will be held Aug. 17 and 18 from 3 to 7 p.m. at Artists Repertory Theatre, 1515 SW Morrison Street. Roles are open for 23 actors to play 16- to 18-year-old high school students. There are no adult roles open. The production begins rehearsals in mid-

March and runs May 3-20, 2018. Auditioners should prepare 32 bars of a pop song. Bring sheet music, a resume, and a recent picture. Times are not assigned - first come, first seen, until 6:50 pm. For details and to schedule an audition go to: www.stagedpdx.org/performance/auditions or email diane@stagedpdx.org.
