Seattle News BriefsSeattle Municipal Court to Host Warrant Outreach Event

Seattle Municipal Court (SMC) encourages anyone with an outstanding SMC warrant to attend its Warrant Outreach event from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nov. 30 at the Yesler Community Center, 917 E. Yesler Way. This event will be held in the community to make it as comfortable as possible for individuals to learn about their options and meet with a public defender without the fear of arrest. Outstanding warrants make it harder to get a job, secure housing and generally move forward in life. SMC will have staff available to answer questions, schedule hearings, and share information on resources and support services available through the Court. The King County Department of Public Defense will have attorneys available to answer questions and offer advice.

SMC has more than 9,400 outstanding warrants. It is anticipated that many event participants will be eligible to have their warrant quashed and the case scheduled for an upcoming hearing to resolve the underlying legal issue.

The Warrant Outreach event is a collaboration between the Seattle Municipal Court, King County Department of Public Defense, Seattle City Attorney's Office, Seattle Police Department, Seattle Parks and Recreation and the Seattle Human Services Department. The court anticipates additional events will be scheduled in 2018.

The Seattle Municipal Court (SMC) provides a forum to resolve alleged violations of the law in a respectful, independent and impartial manner. SMC processes more cases than any other municipal court in the State of Washington with seven elected Judges and five appointed Magistrates. The Court adjudicates misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor crimes, infractions, and civil violations authorized under the Seattle Municipal Code and certain Revised Code of Washington statutes. For more information visit: www.seattle.gov/courts.
