For The Skanner News

As an adolescent, Sean (Robert Sheehan) was dragged by his mom from Ireland to Portland, Oregon so that his step-dad could take a construction job that ended up lasting only a few weeks. Seven years later, Sean's now an aspiring artist who ekes out a living parking cars at a trendy restaurant.

Against his better judgment, he and a fellow valet, Derek (Carlito Olivero), hatch a plan to burglarize homes of well-to-do customers while they're dining. The scheme seems easy as pie, since most people hand over all their keys when checking their vehicles.

But what the partners in crime didn't bank on was that they might break into a house owned by a homicidal maniac in the midst of a killing spree. That's
