Trump Says He's Eager to Sign Sweeping Criminal Justice Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A criminal justice bill passed by the Senate would give judges more discretion when sentencing some drug offenders and would boost prisoner rehabilitation efforts and was hailed by scores of conservative and liberal advocacy groups.

The sweeping bill addresses concerns that the nation's war on drugs had led to the imprisonment of too many Americans for non-violent crimes without adequately preparing them for their return to society. Its passage in the Senate, by an 87-12 vote on Tuesday, culminates years of negotiations and gives President Donald Trump a signature policy victory. The House is expected to pass the bill this week, sending it to Trump's desk for his signature.

"America is the greatest Country in the world and my job is to fight for ALL citizens, even those who have made mistakes," Trump tweeted moments after the Senate vote.

"This will keep our communities safer, and provide hope and a second chance, to those who earn it. In addition to everything else, billions of dollars will be saved. I look forward to signing this into law!" the Republican president added.

The vote also thrilled Democrats. New Jersey Sen. Cory Booker said the nation's prisons are full of Americans who are struggling with mental illness and addiction and who are overwhelmingly poor. He said the nation's criminal justice system "feeds on certain communities and not on others," and he said the bill represents a step toward "healing" for those communities.

Judge's Rebuke of Flynn Upends Sentencing, Prolongs Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge who described himself as disgusted by Michael Flynn's behavior upended a straightforward sentencing hearing, postponing punishment for President Donald Trump's first national security adviser and telling him in a stinging rebuke, "Arguably you sold your country out."

Lawyers for Flynn requested the delay Tuesday after a tongue-lashing from U.S. District Judge Emmet Sullivan raised the prospect that Flynn could spend time behind bars for lying to the FBI about his Russian contacts.

Prosecutors hadn't recommended prison, but the hearing that began with the defendant upbeat and smiling took an unexpected turn when the judge said his sentence would take into account not just Flynn's extensive cooperation with investigators but also the lies the Trump administration official told from the grounds of the White House.
